

PUPPIES' ITEMS

Willie Pratt is working in the kitchen.—G. B.

Thomas Mullings is a kitchen boy now.—G. W.

Louis Sanderson is now working in the tailor shop.

We are having some fine weather at Chemawa.—G. D.

Tom Powers is learning to be a tailor very fast.—J. J. W.

We are all glad that Mary Krider is getting over her sickness.

The girls are glad to see sunshine back so we can play baseball.—C. R.

Violet Edwards is making a very nice sofa cushion for herself.—L. M.

John Briceland is now working in the Bakery and seems to enjoy it.—P. S.

The Y. M. C. A. boys are still preparing for their Luncheon.—J. B.

Mr. Cooper bought a baseball mask for the dairy boys' baseball team.—N. M.

Grover Colby made a nice little corner shelf with a door to it for Mrs. Campbell.

Nellie Boswell is working for Mrs. Campbell, and does her working very nicely.

New flues are going to be put in the last boiler which will be a great help.—M. S.

Gideon Hanbury is making a coat for James McMan and is doing his best on it.—L. R.

The farmers are making a road across the swamp and are grading a road round the hill side.

Mr. Swartz and his boys have been doing some clearing south of the new barns.—H. D.

The plumber boys are hard at work fixing the pipes which run to the mess kitchen.—E. I.

Eugene Anderson is fireman this week in the bower house and he says he likes his work.

Edward Williams is now working in the garden, and is doing some nice work on pruning.—W. L.

A number of girls were out walking last Sunday and enjoyed themselves very much.—A. M.

We are glad to see Eddie Somerville up and walking around after his spell of illness in the hospital.—J. M.

Ethel Parrish who was visiting here for a few weeks has returned to Portland where she goes to school.—K. H.

The cows will in the near future give more milk because of the green grass that is rapidly coming up.—W. H.

Gertrude Kettlewood is now working in the hospital kitchen. She takes great interest in learning to cook.—D. L.

Miss Brown took the sewing room girls out for a walk last Tuesday she took them down to the flood.—M. L.

Thomas Yallup is going to learn to play the trombone. Come on Tom join the band and have some fun.—B. L.

They are putting new flues in one of the boilers in the power house. We hope they will get all the boilers fixed some time.—F. L.

Last Sunday Mr. McPherson and Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberger took some girls out walking and all had a very nice time.—S. S.

Harry W. Long is at Saffinaw, Oregon, working for the Booth & Kelly Lumber Co. He is running the Donkey engine, and is earning $2.75 a day.—G. K.