

THE CHEMAWA AMERICAN

Frank Souvigner has entered the engineering department.—W. M.

The eighth grade girls will have another week in the domestic science.

The boys are having lots of fun playing baseball every morning and noon.—P. S.

Michael Anthony has just been promoted from the mixed grade to the fourth A.—R. E.

We had the pleasure of listening to a band concert last Sunday which was enjoyable.—C. L.

Baseball season is coming and we all hope Chemawa will have a good team this year.—A. S.

Mr. James McPherson, of Alaska, is here visiting his daughter Alice and some of his friends.—J. S.

Mrs. S. C. Cloutier and Mrs. Theisz, left last Wednesday evening. The object of their trip is to invest in timber claims.

We are all glad to see our friend Harry Jones out of the hospital and is ready to continue his studies again.—T. P.

The 8th graders spent Tuesday evening in making baskets for their annual valentine party which took place last Thursday evening.

An interesting anecdote is to the effect that Geo. Washoe is now studying the constitution of the state of Oregon. His ambition is to represent Oregon some day.

Some of the pupils are very slow about writing items, and they are not the pupils of the lower grades. You would be surprised to know the names of some boys and girls who take ten and twenty minutes to write a dozen lines.

The McBride Hall girls enjoy playing baseball.—R. P.

The farmers are now grading down at the side hill.—F. B.

As we are having fine weather the boys can be seen in jumping contests during spare time.—M. B.

Katie Henry presented Mrs. Teabo a very beautiful bead purse and belt. She is very much pleased with them because they were made by Katie.—E. N.

The party given by the blacksmiths and wagonmakers was fine the auditorium was decorated with ferns which made it look very pretty they had their supper in the large dining room, and every one had a fine time.—V. B.

The basketball girls are getting down to good hard practice again since the baskets were put up in the auditorium for them, several new members joined who are as follows Clara Robinson, Hazel Ferris and Lizzie Henkel.—E. M. C.

Members of the 8th grade A and B classes went to Salem and visited the legislative department of the state government last Tuesday. And rumor has it now that there are some interesting meetings and questions of special interest being discussed in Mitchell Hall. James Sloan acting as President.

Girls' Band of Mercy

The Girls' Band of Mercy had a very interesting meeting on last Wednesday evening.

The little girls take a great deal of interest in their meetings and all trying to do their share in getting up the program for the evening.