

ELSEWHERE IN THE SERVICE

Mrs. Ross Preston, wife of Superintendent Preston, of Colony, Oklahoma, died on January 22, at Wyandotte, I. T. Mrs. Preston was formerly Miss Johnson.

Miss Grace Allingham, formerly dining room matron here has resigned her position as Domestic Science teacher at Chiloco, and is now at Peck, Kansas.

Mr. R. P. Stanion, superintendent of the Arapaho boarding school, Darlington, Oklahoma, has been transferred to the Rosebud agency South Dakota.

Mr. Shively, engineer at the White Earth boarding school and Miss Everett the cook, were married recently.

Mr. John W. Carl, a graduate of Haskell is the first auditor of the new country of Mahanomen, Minnesota. The Chippeway Herald says it is a responsible position, but it feels that Mr. Carl will fill it with honor.

Mr. August A. Breuninger has resigned his position as bandmaster at Mount Pleasant, Michigan, and has gone to Shawano, Wisconsin, to go into business for himself.

A former Haskell pupil, who has been a teacher for a number of years. Miss Minnie Schiffbauer was married during the holidays to Mr. J. J. Morris. Mrs. Morris is now a teacher at Pine Ridge, South Dakota.—Indian Leader.

Julia DeCora, Normal graduate of '98, now seamstress at the Klamath Agency school in Oregon, writes of the kind friends she has found there and thus describes her surroundings.

We are situated in a beautiful valley with the mountains all around, and Mt.

Shasta is to be seen south of us. We have plenty of trout and ducks. The streams here are as clear as crystal and ice cold. We have pines taller than those in New England. The Klamaths are very progressive and there are no blankets worn even by the women. They wear hats and act like any other intelligent people.—The Southern Workman.

Adele Quinney, normal graduate of 1903, for several years an assistant in the Indian school at Mt. Pleasant, Mich; was married on November 12, at her home, Shawano, Wis., to Mr. C. A. Pedersen, a graduate of the Madison Agricultural College and now head farmer at Mt. Pleasant where the young couple make their home. Phoebe Stevens and Isaiah Reed, both ex student of Hampton were married at Hobart Church, Oneida, Wis., December 29. A reception was given at the Oneida Government School where the former has been an assistant a number of years.—The Southern workman.

Inspector A. M. Tinker has returned to Rosebud agency from Sisseton, to complete his work here.

Supervisor Holland left Thursday for Yuma after pleasant visit of two weeks. All the school people will be pleased to have him return soon.

An elegant bunch of red radishes was received from the school house, marked the first crop grown by the pupils of room eight.—Native American.

A letter recently from north Dakota stated that they failed to get mail for three weeks on account of the severe snow storms.

Our former Assistant Superintendent's wife, Mrs. E. A. Allen and daughter Esther were the guests of Mrs. C. L. Davis in north Dakota and the school for two weeks. Mrs. Allen likes North Dakota and the climate likes her.—Ex.