

PUPILS' ITEMS

Michel Anthony is quite a violinist.

The boys basket ball team started in practicing Monday evening.

Mary Gibean is making herself a pretty spring dress.—M. M. J.

The painters completed painting a wagon which is ready for use.

The new summer uniforms are now being made in the sewing room.

The party given by the Excelsiors last Thursday was very good.—D. D.

Mr Westley is burning brush in the orchard and will have it plowed.—J. M.

The Y. M. C. A. members are glad that 20 are joining their association. J. B.

The Odd Club gave a nice entertainment Saturday which was enjoyed by all.—A. M.

The pupils who were promoted from the 6th to the 7th grade are getting along.—J. E. M.

The Salem cadet company of Chemawa held a very interesting meeting Monday evening.—G. W.

George Scott who has been working in the tailor shop for the last three years has entered the engineer department.

The girls have been reseated and I have very nice table mates who are polite and I will stay very quite.—M. B.

Last Saturday a game of base ball was played between the first and second team and resulted in the second team being defeated.—M. H.

The girls all wore their new uniform dresses last Sunday for the first time, they were very becoming and the girls made a good appearance.—M. L.

Adeline Robinson will be a very neat house keeper.—C. R.

Part of the 5th A. Class are working in the domestic science this week—G. C.

We all enjoyed Mr. Swart's talk very much in chapel on Monday night—S. M.

The members of the base ball team have been improving our time after school in light practice—L. S.

We are all glad to see Mr. W. P. Campbell back with several new pupils from Crescent City California.—C. F. B.

This nice weather make us think of spring and we will soon see the flowers in bloom crocuses are growing in their garden.—A. S.

There are whispers going around that a new club has been organized in Mc Bride Hall besides the Daisy and Odd Clubs.—M. M.

Miss Edith Inman is promoted to 5th B; And is getting along fine so far—A. D. Leon Reinkin is promoted to the seventh grade we all hope he will do his best—F. I.

Since the Seniors have been taking cooking lessons in school it is not surprising that when Robert Davis was asked by an employe to put a flat iron on the mess kitchen stove for her, that a few minutes later he returned and asked her if she wanted it turned over or not. He forgot that it was not an egg.

Miss Elsa A. Mayham, of Delhi, N. Y. recently appointed assistant matron of the dining hall assumed her duties on February eighth.—The Arrow.