

LOCALS

Mr. Cox is very kind to the boys that work in the kitchen.

Philip Warren went home to Grande Ronde on account of sickness at home.

Mrs. Theisz and George Horn trimmed the roses around McBride Hall.

Joel Baines writes from Ketchikan, Alaska subscribing for the AMERICAN.

Thomas Mullings is working in the butcher shop and is doing some nice work.

Elizabeth Ashley left for her home in Montana last Monday on the 3:30 train.

Sarah Brewer who has been promoted from the fifth to the sixth grade is doing nicely.

Mrs. Edward Hirsch of Salem was the guest of Mrs. Campbell the latter part of last week.

The printers have the sewing room girls to thank for their new black aprons and sleevelets.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrow have moved into the house keeping rooms vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Beck.

The printers recently had the pleasure of showing type lice to Misses Gage, Lalor and Howard.

The grades are all getting their exhibit ready to send to the Jamestown exposition this week.

Christina Lane bought herself a pretty guitar, and we all expect to hear good music in the near future.

Mr. E. D. Wilcox, of Tacoma, Wash. visited his wards Hattie Zadlath and Ruth Jacobs on Tuesday.

Mr. Chalcraft is at Klamath Agency, Oregon collecting pupils.

While in Portland Misses Hutchinson and Lalor had a very pleasant visit with Miss O'Here.

Mr. Goudge's Sunday School class is growing bigger every Sunday. We hope some more boys will join next Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Williams of Tacoma, Wash. visited her son Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Teabo a day last week when she returned Charlie to school.

The small boys' delight these days are stilts. They are all right on their high perches if they only keep on the walks, but there can be no punching holes in the lawns.

Mr. Campbell told us of his trip to California last Friday evening. He mentioned some of the old pupils who are getting along fine and making good reputations for themselves.

Mrs. Chalcraft received an assortment of very beautiful baskets from Miss Clark, missionary at Neah Bay, Wash. to be sold among the employes. She had no trouble in selling them as they went like hot cakes.

The eighth grade has a good display of cabbage plants growing in the classroom. These plants were obtained from seeds tested between sheets of blotting paper. Robert Davis and Peter Casey are taking care of these plants.

Hon. Ed. Hirsch and wife of Salem accompanied by Mrs. Hirsch's sister, Mrs. Myer of Los Angeles, California, visited the schoolrooms, shops and other school buildings on Thursday afternoon. They were very much pleased with all they saw.