

PUPILS' ITEMS

The gardeners are planting early potatoes.

The farmers will soon be through seeding down by the creek.

Nellie Boswell says that she likes to work for Mrs. Campbell.

Mr. James Smith returned from Tacoma where he went on business.

The farmers and gardeners will have their party on Thursday night.

All the boys and girls will be glad when they commence to make gardens.

The flowers are now in bloom and the air smells sweet with their fragrance.

Mrs. Rosenberger made Lizzie Dohl a very pretty white dress. Lizzie is very proud of it.

Mr. Frank Ashley of St. Ignatius, Montana, has been here visiting his children Al, Eddie and sister Elizabeth Ashley.

A man from Salem came to talk to the Chemawa people on Sunday evening, and made a very interesting lecture.

I like the school alright over here even it is my first day. I am from California. I am here now and I was glad to get here and I will learn something. W. N.

A letter was received from Nellie Barrett and said that she likes the place where she is now. She is having a very nice time going out skating nearly every day.

Mr. Olney of Toppenish, Washington, was visiting his children who are pupils of this school the latter part of this week. After a short stay he left for his home Monday evening.

Mr. Brewer was in Portland on Wednesday.

Bessie Boles is back to her work after suffering several days with a sprained arm.

Our baseball team is fast rounding into shape as proved in the game last Saturday. That showed marked improvement.

Genevieve Headley is now clerking at the Chicago Store in Salem, going and returning each day on the car.

We all notice that the flowers are beginning to bloom now I know we will all be happier later on if the world don't come to an end as they said it would.

Miss Miller went to her farm in Washington, to prepare for the summer. Miss G. Brewer is the teacher of the third grade during the absence of Miss Miller.

The deer park back of the small girls home has been finished and the deer will be put in as soon as grass grows. The park will be very interesting to our visitors.

The baseball boys played a game Saturday afternoon. The first and second teams played together. The first team won. A few of the girls attended the game. We all enjoyed the game.

Thomas Yallup is learning right along on his trombone on which he has been practicing not very long. And he is also practicing on his mandolin. Thomas will be a good musician when he will learn to play both of his instruments.

In the Y. M. C. A. outing on Easter Eve will be a special contest, a fifty-yard dash between Peter Seltice and Webster Hudson which will be the feature of the day. Peter Seltice will represent the victorious "Reds" of 1906 and Webster Hudson the "Blues."