EXCELSIOR

The Excelsiors met at their usual place last Friday. The house was called to order by the president. The minutes were read and approved. There were some business brought out by different members and it was settled to the satisfaction of the society. It happened at this time that the Nonpareils sent in the note accepting our challenge for a public debate which was delayed for a week. So we put off our program and selected our debaters for the contest. The debate is to be sometime in the near future.

HIAWATHA

The members of the Hiawatha Club met in their usual place. The house was called to order by the president and the secretary called the roll, which was responded to by both comical and proverbial verses. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The program was rendered before the business was transacted.

The following program was rendered:

"The Way to Improve our Club," Peter Seltice; Vocal Duett, "Do They Think of me at Home," Thomas McCully and Eugene Williams; Comic Reading, John Upham; Recitation, Gordon Hobucket; Jokes, John Peazzoni; Vocal Solo, "Tis Not a Uniform that Makes a Soldier," James Sloan; "News on the Chemawa Grounds," Robert Davis. Old and new business were brought before the house, which led to a long discussion. The floor was never vacant. The program for the preceding meeting was not made on account of some important business to transact.

ESTELLE REEL

The Estelle Reels met in their usual place all members being present. The program of the evening consisted of a debate. The subject was, "Resolved: That the horse is of more benefit to mankind than a cow."

Affirmative	Negative
Bessie Williams	Mattie Zimmerman
Alice Chaicraft	Nealie Barrett
Annie Evans	Grace Beaver

The debate proved unusually interesting as nearly all the members took an active part. After due deliberation the judges decided in favor of the horse.
