

Do you know—

That it hailed on Saturday—

That it snowed on Monday—

Who will organize a club next—

That it rains almost every day—

Where all of the dogs are coming from—

Which grade sends in the best lot of items—

That George Washoe is a good Club organizer—

That we are having a hard time to get news—

Which company of the boys keep the best step—

That party gives miss much school while decorating—

That there will be a public debate in chapel tonight—

That one of the teachers wrote one whole page of locals—

That the band is increasing in number and in making noise—

That many string instruments are going from place to place—

That the AMERICAN can be sent to any address in the United States—

That some one ought to force the weather so we can play ball—

That the time for band practice has been increased one hour—

That the Y. M. C. A. will have another Easter party tomorrow night—

That John Upham will make the Y. M. C. A. boys go some in high jumping—

That the Indian war dancers are becoming civilized—they can play a violin—

That there was no news for the Hiawathas and Excelsiors last meeting—

Which department is excused from work first—

When the Daisy or Odd Club will come out again—

When the Japanese question will be settled in the Literary Societies.

Which division in the dining hall make the most noise.

Which boys are on time for meals and late for school and chapel.

That several of the floors in Mitchell Hall have been oiled and waxed since the last inspection.

LEFT OVER ITEM

Miss Gertrude Brewer went to Albany Wednesday evening and attended the concert given by William H. Sherwood, considered the greatest American pianist.

Supt. and Mrs. Chacraft, Mr. and Mrs. Brewer and the clerical staff spent a very pleasant evening on the 20th celebrating Mr. Campbells birthday. The game of "Bunco" played by all at a table was very exciting and interesting, especially when Messrs. Campbell and Brewer almost monopolized the playing with the use of their stop cards.
