

PUPILS' ITEMS

Mrs. Mason of Idaho is here visiting her brother and cousins.

We are glad that the rainy weather is nearly over.—D.H.B.

Violet Berner is making herself a very nice dress for Easter.

Mr. Willie Ward an ex-pupil is visiting friends in Chemawa.—L. B.

The girls of the mandolin club are anxious to take their first lesson.—L.H.

The band gave a short concert Sunday which was interesting. —E. M.

Elsie Lewis is taking lessons on the guitar, and is learning fast. We wish her success.

Rosa Winslow received a beautiful pennant last Sunday from the Salem High School.

The little boys of Company D are beginning to drill and parade around on the ball-ground.

The Estella Reels had their meeting in the same room and we all had a very nice meeting.—M. J.

We all enjoyed the talk given to us by Professor McKnight of W. U. Last Sunday evening.—K. B.

We are all looking forward for some good music given by the girls of McBride Hall, which is called the girls orchestra.

Hulda Stokes of Klamath came to Chemawa a few days ago to enter the school and says she likes the school.—B. C.

We hope in the near future to see the young ladies string band marching across the grounds to show the young men how to play.

Miss Jones has been trying to rid the commissary of rats, her latest method is by giving them cheese sandwiches.

Fred Lewis says that he will make the Y. M. C. A. boys of Portland go some in the relay race from Salem to Portland.

Ema Hauser said she feels as tho she has accomplished a great deal since she has been working for Mrs Woods in the laundry.

The little girls Band of Mercy had a very nice program last Wednesday night. All of the little girls was willing to take part.—E. Z.

We were very much surprised when it began raining the first part of spring as we thought we were going to have warm weather.

Employees should show the school spirit as one of engineers does occasionally by visiting our class rooms once in a while. Jas. Smith is the one who takes interest in us and visits us once in a while. We hope he will continue his visits and have other visitors at times.

Chemawa second basket ball team went to Portland last Friday evening to play the Zenon team and won by a score of 32-15 and Saturday they played the Albina team but were defeated by score of 25-23. They returned on the morning train on Sunday.—C. D.

GO TO

The

CHICAGO STORE

FOR

BARGAIN IN DRY GOOD