

LOCALS

This is Holy week.

Have you bought any Portland lots?

Didn't the little boys look nice on Sunday?

The little girls all wore new uniforms on Sunday.

Calvin Darnell who has had sore eyes is again in school.

The 6th and 7th grades are having their quarterly test.

Christine Neas of Idaho is visiting her brother Paschal George.

Miss Iva Cox returned Monday afternoon from her visit at Eugene.

Mr. Campbell and Mr. Brewer went to Portland with the basket ball boys.

Father Datin gave the Catholic pupils an excellent sermon on Sunday morning.

The rose bushes have all been trimmed and many new ones are being put out.

Tracy Hatch and Reuben Saunders of Salem were visitors at Chemawa on Sunday.

A number of Chemawa people attended the "tenderfoot" in Salem Tuesday evening.

The cheery little robins are very fond of Chemawa. They can be seen all over the grounds.

Nellie Boswell makes a fine little maid and is going to be one of our best housekeepers.

W. Mc Knight of Willamette Theological Seminary addressed the School on Sunday night.

Louise Thornton, Jasper and Oscar Grant arrived at the school Sunday evening from Northern California.

We miss Mr. Larsens cornet when he does not play at the chapel service. It is a great help to the singing.

Louise Murray is an excellent seamstress and during her spare time sews for some of the employes and their families.

The 7th grade boys and girls are nearly all ready to be promoted to the 8th grade. We hope all will pass the final test in June.

William Ward, a former pupil of Chemawa, who has been working in Portland, visited the Brewers and Mrs. Cloutier for a few days.

During the latter part of the week Mr. Abraham Charlie, who is Captain of Police of the Klamath Reservation, visited friends at the school.

Mrs. Jude is on her way to California to visit her people, she looks very well and very happy and her old friends were all delighted to see her.

James Smith and Ernest Brewer began this week to sleep in the open air they have their tent pitched and are intending to sleep outside all summer.

Girls, wear your wraps do not run around wearing thin shirt waists during these damp and chilly days. The real warm weather will soon be here. Do not force the season.

Wasn't the chapel crowded Saturday night, hardly any room for an excited boy or girl why is it that no one is ever feeling too bad to go to chapel when there is any "show" of any kind going on.

Mrs. Frank Jude formerly our Daisy Dyke, is visiting friends at Chemawa. Mrs. Jude came to Chemawa when a very little girl and five years ago went to Carlisle. Last September she was married to Frank Jude the famous Indian baseball player, and they made their home in Minneapolis, Minn.
