INDIAN MUSICIAN & PIANO TUNER.

Aug. A. Breuninger, lately of Mt. Pleasant, Mich., has been in the city for a couple of weeks and has decided to locate here. He is a musician and band-master and will endeavor to get up a band here, also to instruct some of the neighboring band. He also tunes pianos. We hope that a band can be organized in Shawano as the town is certainly large enough to support a first-class band. The Advocate trusts that the gentleman will have success in the city.—Advocate

We are having some very fine weather here at school nowadays.

Frank Coburn printed some blue and red ribbons for the Y. M. C. A. boys. The society is divided into the Reds and Blues.

Louise Thornton arrived here Sunday evening.

The dairy boys challenged the bakers to a game of basketball and were accepted.

Emma and Agnes Shepard are taking violin lessons. They both can read notes pretty well now.

We notice by the papers that there is a 15 year old Indian girl of New York state answering to the charge of murder. We also notice that she is only one eighth Indian, while the one eighth was doing the horrible deed we wonder what the seven eighths were doing in the meantime.

Miss Nora Mann who is attending the Willametty University is also taking lessons on the banjo from Prof. Long of Salem.
