

LOCALS

Mrs. Brewer attended the Christian Church in Salem on Easter.

The kitchen boys had a very fine party last Thursday evening.

Spring is here and summer is coming. We all hope to have good weather.

Alice McPherson had a fox skin made into a pretty fur, and she is proud of it.

Mrs. Brewer gave her laundry girls and small boys at Miss Troutman's building some colored Easter eggs.

Miss Brown and her dress making girls are getting along nicely with the Mc Bride ball girls percale dresses.

Mr. Farrow, the harnessmaker left for a short leave on Saturday afternoon for his home at Umatilla to look after his interests there.

The Easter hat this year was like the ground hog, it come out early in the morning but as it could not see its shadow it retired for the day.

After holding the honors in debating contests for two years, the girls of the Nonpareil Society won again this year, defeating the Excelsior boys Friday evening.

Mrs. Theisz received a letter from Emma Jules, who is now living at Quileene, Washington. Emma is now Mrs. Garrison, and she writes that she is well and happy and has two fine boys who are also in good health and growing. Emma's friends at Chemawa remember her as one of the progressive pupils while she was here. It is a pleasure to know that Chemawa's pupils don't forget their Alma Mater.

Mr. Larsen's cornet was a great help to the singers on Sunday.

Mr. Goudge talked to us on Sunday night about the resurrection of Christ.

The choir sang an Easter anthem on Sunday night which was unusually well rendered.

Father Datin had confession and Mass for the Roman Catholic pupils on Sunday morning.

Our Chapel was beautifully decorated on Easter Sunday. Miss Troutman furnished the beautiful plants.

Boys and girls who absent themselves from school on every possible excuse naturally fall behind in their studies.

Mrs. Campbell and Miss Irene and Miss Hutchinson attended service at the Episcopal church in Salem on Easter morning.

Paschal George went home to Idaho with his sister last Friday. Paschal is a jolly friendly fellow and the boys and employes will miss his pleasant face. He expects to return later.

The school sang "Alleluia Alleluia" beautifully on Sunday night. The hymn in which the "Alleluia" is sung so frequently is "Christ the Lord is risen today and is a great favorite.

We are having a number of excellent entertainments at Chemawa. Miss Squier gave us a dramatic reading on Saturday night, and Mr. Webber of Salem entertained us last Monday evening.

The following program was rendered on Sunday night: Hymn, "Christ the Lord is risen today," school; Prayer, Mr. Goudge; Anthem, "Resurrection Day," choir; Reading of Scripture, Mr. Goudge; Hymn, "Ring the joy bells Christ has risen," school; Sermon, Mr. Goudge; Parting Hymn, school; Watchword, school.