Sunday School Lesson April 21, 1907

Joseph and his brother—Gen. 37: 5-28.

Golden Text.—For where enjoying and strife is, there confusion and every evil work. James 3: 16.

THERE ARE OTHER "GOOD MAKES"

The various walks of life are seeing the educated Indian a dangerous competitor in all branches and where you find an intelligent and educated Indian it is likely that he is "Carlisle made."
—The Arrow.

On the evening of April 1st the wedding of Lizzie Galbreath, class of 1906, to Mr. Henry W. Main took place at Browning, Montana. The wedding was a quiet one and only a few of their relative and personal friends were invited.
The regular Methodist ceremony was performed by Rev. F. A. Riffin, after which the party attended the Easter ball at Browning. Mr. Main owns a large ranch which embraces the main portion of the present townsite of Babb, and he also owns a large hotel at Browning.
The happy couple will make their home at Babb. Lizzie's many Chemawa friends extend hearty congratulations, and are glad to note from a clipping taken from a Montana paper that, "She is unsurpassed as a housekeeper and without exception, she is the most handsome and accomplished young lady of all that section."

Societies

HIAWATHA

The members of the Hiawatha Club held their meeting Friday evening. The secretary being absent, President Casey appointed Jas. Sloan as secretary pro tem. This being the evening for the election of officers the debate was postponed. The election resulted as follows: President, Peter Seltice; Vice-President, Phillip Sorahan; Secretary, Rob't.
Davis; Treasurer, Eugene Williams; Sergeant-at-arms, Maxime Barnaby; Censor, Peter Casey; Reporter, Louis John. After the election the Nonpareil wished to hold a joint meeting, and were admitted. After a good deal of business was talked over the last bell rang and we adjourned.

EXCELSIOR

The Excelsior Literary society held their meeting in the usual school room.
The house was called to order and the roll was called finding a large number of absentees. The presiding officers time having expired new officers were elected as follows: President, Grover Colby; Vice-President, Mosher Johnson; Secretary, Loulin Brewer; Sergeant-at-arms, Harry Jones; Asst. Sergeant-at-arms, George Washoe; Reporter, Joe Dillstrom. No other business of importance was brought before the house before the hour to adjourn. Miss Jones and Miss Howard paid us a visit which we appreciated very much.
