

PUPILS' ITEMS

Dandelions are plentiful.—E. S.

We all enjoyed the party given by the Estelle Reels.

The girls who take lessons on the violin are doing fine.—M. M.

Willie Pratt is getting to be a very good five mile runner.—H. C.

Louise Thornton is working in the dining hall and does her work nicely.

The small girls from Miss Troutman's building enjoyed the show April 6th

Christina Lane who is taking music lessons on the guitar is learning rapidly.

We all hope that the Daisy Club will come again with another entertainment.

Mr. William Hartless of Grand Ronde has in the past week visited his son Martin Hartless.—J. S.

We are very glad to see Elmer Sorahan out from Hospital after being there for some time.—W. P.

Rosetta Peco is learning how to play the G. cord on the guitar, and we all wish her success.—H. B.

The little folks attended the minstrel given by the Nesika Club. They seemed to enjoy the entertainment.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. will send six delegates to the convention at Corvallis the 11th of this month.

We notice by the hospital there is a beautiful rose in bloom. It is the first rose we have seen for some time.

A recent letter received from Paschal George states that he is recovering from his illness, and sends his best wishes to all friends and his school pedagogue.

"April showers bring May flowers." It certainly has brought the cherry blossoms, by the way the orchard looks.

We are glad to hear that Emma Shepard is getting along nicely in her sewing. She has already made two dress for herself.—N. S.

A letter was recieved from Dora Lane by one of her friends stating that she is well and wishes to be back in Chemawa again.—C. M.

Harry Jones is working on the large boiler this week with a few of the other boys, but he is the instructor and they all do good work.—J. M.

Mrs. Cox took some little girls out for a walk Sunday and they all enjoyed being out in the fresh air. The little girls all like to gather the spring flowers.

John Smikes and James Anderson are farm boys. They learned a great deal this year and they are going to stay with it until they are good farmers.

Albert Scott has left for his home at Fort Jones, California. He is missed by many friends at Chemawa. He will be also missed by the second baseball team very much.—J. B.

Next Friday the members of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet and Miss Bowman will leave for Corvallis to represent our society at the state convention. They will return on Monday.—K. B.

The speakers who defended the Nonpareil's side of the question at the public debate agree with one of the critics that the Excelsiors did put them "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree," but they wish it to be understood that they are still under the tree enjoying the delicious flavor of the apples of victory.—L. F.