

LOCALS

Pickering Chafcraft is taking lessons on the violin.

"Gratitude" was Mr. Goudge's subject last Sunday evening.

Oh! how beautifully our orchards are decorated with blossoms.

Gus Bowchop was out the first part of the week hunting items.

Frank Coburn is now out of the hospital after a short spell of illness.

Monday night we all had a nice time listening to the graphophone of Mr. Cooper's.

The Y. W. C. A. delegates to the Corvallis convention returned last Monday morning.

The Daisy Club held a very interesting meeting in McBride Hall last Friday evening.

Miss Miller took her Band of Mercy girls out for a walk Sunday, and we all enjoyed our walk.

Mrs. Harsel of Salem and her daughter Miss Lena visited friends at the school on Sunday.

Frank Coburn is back in the band again. The little Eb was missed very much on Monday.

The Y. W. C. A. girls have returned from Corvallis after spending a few days at the State convention.

For some slight reason the band has not been drilling in their regular form but get in and drill with Co. A.

Miss Skipton took her sewing room girls out walking Friday, and we all enjoyed our selves very much.

Martha Miller is working on the floor for Miss Troutman and she is proud of her because she does her work neatly.

Miss Brown took Martha LeClair and Bessie Boles to evening service at the Episcopal church in Salem on Sunday.

Have you noticed how full of buds the rose bushes are? If this warm weather continues we will soon have thousands of roses.

Mr. Chalcraft, Mr. Brewer and Mr. Swartz and some of the boys began leveling the road between the Root house and the Power house.

Chemawa looked like a city park on Sunday. There were a great many people here from Salem enjoying our beautiful grounds, and the music of our band.

Mrs. Shucking of Salem with her cousin Miss McCully of Portland and Miss Wilson of Salem visited the different departments of the school on Friday.

Mrs. Campbell, Miss Irene and Mr. Ernest Brewer saw Sousa's opera "The Free Lance" at the opera house in Salem on Wednesday night, and say it was very fine.

While Mr. Cooper was entertaining the school in chapel Monday evening, Mr. Bewley had the same kind of machine over in Mitchell Hall in band hall entertaining the band boys. He also took some records of the school band.

Misses Aileen and Laura Thompson, and Miss Margaret Wilson of Salem and Miss Margaret Sutherland and Miss Lila McCully of Portland were guests of Miss Irene Campbell during the week and the tennis court was inaugurated for the season.