Miss Josephine Roulette, a graduate of the Haskell Normal department and for some time a successful teacher here has been appointed teacher in the Genoa school.—Indian Leader.

A soaking rain fell Saturday. The pupils who had their gardens planted were delighted, because they are so anxious for the seeds to sprout. Some of them had been sprinkling their gardens, though no one else had thought of the ground being dry.—Indian Leader.

The Printery loses three of its best boys by graduation this year and they go with the best wishes of all the "typos. Jonas Jackeon left for Chicago Ill., to assume a position with the well known railroads printers Poole Bros., at a good salary. Archib Libby returns to White Earth, Minnesota, to arrange his business affairs and will probably go into business there. Edward Sorrel goes back to Pocatello, Idaho, where he will enter business in partnership with his uncle. The young men have been good faithful workers and students while at Carlisle, and they will without doubt prove a credit to the institution from which they have been graduated.—The Arrow.

The plans are completed for the erection of the new buildings for the Presbyterian Indian School south of Toucsin. Sixty thousand dollars will be expended in the construction of modern buildings for the housing and teaching of the native Americans. Indian labor will be employed for a large part of the unskilled work so that greater results will be obtained from less amount of money than is usual in building operations in Tucson. The Indian Training farm west of this city will also be sold in the near future, and the process of that sale applied on the improvement of the new place, H. G. Brown and O. C. Kellond will remain heads of their respective departments under the new arrangement next year.—Tucson Post.

Owing to the absence of many of the members who had gone to Corvallis. The Nonpareils had no meeting last Friday.

The band boys miss their old bass drummer very much. That is Tracey Johnston.

Eddie Sommerville is practicing for the mile run when the first field meet comes along.

Wednesday morning while drilling, a command was given to Co. A. which sounded like "Around the race track, march!" It was carried out to perfection in fifty-five seconds by Joe Dillstrom and Robert Davis.

The Y. W. C. A. girls have returned from the Convention at Corvallis and they said they enjoyed themselves fine. They were invited out to dinner at Mrs. Grear's who was once a cook at the Chemawa mess.
