Are any of us ungrateful?

A girl likes to think that other girls think her attractive.

We prophecy that the Chemawa band will be playing Sousa's march "On to Victory" before long.

Mr. Goudge used the word "Ingratitude" for the subject of his talk on Sunday night.

The 7th grade feels very proud of their classmate Joe Dillstrom, whose cartoon was printed in the Sunday "Statesman" and was highly praised by that paper.

There are as many varieties of dangerous girls as there are styles of doing the hair or many different shapes of hats they wear. You cannot always tell the amount of brains a girl has by the size of the hat she wears. When a girl buys a hat she generally gets the one that is next the size to a cart-wheel but it is just the opposite when she buys shoes.

We can make our lives sublime,
Writing items all the time,
For the AMERICAN, dont you see,
Depends, for news, upon you and me;
You may not be a thinking machine,
Simply tell us of what you have seen.

—Peter Joseph Seltice.

Just Be Glad

Oh, heart of mine, we shouldn't
Worry so!

What we've missed of calm we couldn't
Have, you know.

What we've met of stormy pain
And of sorrow's driving rain,
We can better meet again
If it blow.

For we know not every morrow
Can be sad;
So, forgetting all the sorrow
We have had.

Let us fold away our fears
And put by our foolish tears,
And through all the coming years,
Just be glad!

—James Whitcomb Riley.
