

PUPILS' ITEMS

The pupils had a fire drill Monday.

They are working on the racetrack this week.

We all enjoyed the band concert last Sunday afternoon.

The meaning of "Nesika" in Chinook language is "ours."

The printers' party is only as far away as to-morrow.

Janquin Meadows is getting to be quite a horse shoer.

There will be a baseball game here Saturday afternoon.

David Billings cousins came April 3rd and he was very glad.

Sara Matthews is now working on the floor for Miss Troutman.

We notice that one company is a little too fast for its captain.

James Olney left on Tuesday morning for Washington state.

Myrtle Berner is working in the hospital so as to become a nurse.

Caroline Wright is working in the mess kitchen and is doing nicely.

The prune orchard looks very beautiful since the trees began to bloom.

The A, B, and C companies started drilling last Tuesday morning at half past five o'clock.

Wm. Beach is making a stringed instrument in the plumber shop which will soon be finished.

Bert Prothers joined the band last week and he says he can make the bass drum ring when the band plays.

What did Philip Sorahan think there was at the end of the race track caused him to go clear around?

Miss Brown took the sewing room girls out for a walk Saturday afternoon and all enjoyed their walk.

We passed a very pleasant evening Monday listening to the graphophone. Mr. Cooper entertained us with.

The party given by the Remnant club last Thursday evening was fine and everybody enjoyed themselves.

A letter from Anna Galbreath states that she is attending the Holy Names Academy in Spokane and likes the place real well.—L. M.

Peter Seltice and Webster Hudson will finish their contest Saturday. They wish to have all their friends to be present for the final contest. One hundred yard dash.

The girls like to tell about the pretty dress another girl is making for herself. But the girl who tells about it only wishes she had one a little prettier.

We have Mr. Cooper to thank for the enjoyable time the school had on Monday evening. It was very kind of him to take up so much of his time to entertain us.

Miss Dohse took some of the girls for a walk last Sunday afternoon and they enjoyed it very much. We are having such delightful weather that we wish we could go walking every day.

The eighth grade pupils went out in the school yard last Friday morning and pulled weeds up out of the violet bed and cleaned up around the front of the school building which improved the looks very much.