

PUPILS' ITEM

We were all glad to have Mr. Forbes with us last Sunday.—A. M.

The first and second teams are hard at practice every evening.—J. B.

We are patiently waiting for the Daisy Club to appear again.—G. K.

Mr. Bittles was here visiting his children and they were very glad to see him.—J. R.

We all enjoyed the band concert given last Sunday evening by the band boys.—L. C.

Emma Shepard is making herself a very pretty dress and she is very proud of it.—S. D.

The first team had a game with the O. A. C. boys last Saturday but they were defeated.—J. B.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. spent a very enjoyable evening at Old Chemawa last Saturday.—G. C.

Thomas Williams is getting to be a good clarinet player.—G. B.

The dining hall looks very nice since the new curtains have been put up.—M. L.

May Mercier is now working in the sewing room and I hope that in the near future she will be a good dress maker.—E. S.

During all spare moments Milton Godowa can be seen shining the floor in his room. He is a first class housekeeper.—J. E.

Harry Queachpalma had a little hard luck in setting a gopher-gun, it went off and cut his hand pretty bad and he is now in the hospital.—J. P.

Athletic

Leon Reinken is practicing hard for the high jump.

Tom Powers and Jessie Wilson can be seen on the track every evening.

The Chemawa second basketball team went up town yesterday to have their picture taken.

Fred Irving is becoming a good long distance runner, but he says he does not know what he is training for.

We hear that the engineers are to play the "hashslingers" a game of basketball in the very near future.

The boys who are training for the relay race take their meals in the Domestic Science Department.

We are all glad to see Merl Poland back to Chemawa to pitch for the Chemawa baseball nine again.

We hear that the boys are going to make a tennis court we hope they will do so and make tennis a popular game at Chemawa.

Mr. Grilly, Secretary of the Portland Y. M. C. A. and James Smith started setting out the posts, to mark off the distance to be run by each runner, last Thursday.

The Chemawa baseball team was defeated by the O. A. C. boys last Saturday by a score of 18 to 11. That was the first game of the season for the Chemawa boys.

There is to be a field meet between the Salem Y. M. C. A. Juniors and the Chemawa Juniors. Boys seventeen or under will be allowed to take part.

Mr. Watt Shipp was out here Monday to assist Mr. Campbell and Smith who are training the boys who take part in the 50 mile race. He appeared to be surprised to see the progress they had made.