

LOCALS

Mrs. Newcomb is certainly giving the employes a variety at the club.

Mr. Teabo treated the band boys to oranges Wednesday evening.

The printers printed the napkins for the Nonpareil chicken dinner.

Mr. Chalcraft left on business for the Sound Country on Wednesday.

Several employes from Chemawa attended the "Yankee Tourist" in Salem last evening.

The Y. W. C. A. girls had a stand and sold ice cream in front of the old printing office Saturday afternoon.

The sewing machines have all been repaired in the tailor shop and each boy has his own machine to take care of.

The printers talk a great deal about their athletic qualities but you can never tell what they are able to do until you see them do.

There were a dozen, more or less new cow-boy hats among the girls last Sunday morning.

Miss Lalor received a box of very choice oranges from a friend at Riverside, Cal., Wednesday morning, and her friends have all had a hand-out. Some declare that they have never tasted such sweet and juicy oranges before.

Mr. Woodin, formerly chief clerk and Mr. Stoudenmeyer formerly bandmaster here and Gesner of Salem paid Chemawa a visit on Thursday they were cordially welcomed by their friends. Mr. Campbell conducted them over the grounds and show them the many changes and improvements.

Mrs. M. J. Hamen of Warmspring who is visiting her relatives in Salem spent her visit with her friends.

Now that the blossoms are all off the prune trees they are starting to leaf out. Out here in Oregon, it seems that the trees bloom first, then leaf afterwards.

Last Monday evening three boys attended a banquet given by the Y. M. C. A. of Salem. Among the guests were Mr. Wait, International Secretary of New York.

Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Teabo were in town Thursday in quest of pansy plants. They came home with several dozen and we may now expect to see some nice pansy beds this summer.

Nora Mann who is attending Willamette has been out of school for the last two weeks tending to the housework during her mother's illness.

A very sad incident happened at the school last Monday morning at one o'clock A. M. when Charlie Fiester, a runaway pupil, attempted to break into the store in order to supply his camp, which he had established in the woods near the school, and, in the attempt, was killed by Mr. Henderson, the post-master, who supposed that the store was being burglarized. Charlie, in company with another boy, had run away about a week before. It was a very regrettable occurrence and the coroner of Marion County impaneled a jury, thoroughly investigated the matter and exonerated Mr. Henderson.

PATTON BROS.
SALEM'S
BEST BOOK STORE