

Weekly Chemawa American

VOL. X.

MAY 3, 1907

No. 5

PUPILS' ITEMS

Milton Godawa is practicing the school song on his cornet.

A base ball team is to be organized at McBride Hall.---H. F.

Clayton Kirk of southern Oregon is visiting friends at Chemawa.

The boys are drilling now every morning getting ready for commencement.

The dress makers are looking forward to the picnic they are going to have. N. S.

We are all anxious to start in making gardens before the weather gets too warm.

The appearance of Chemawa has been considerably improved since the roofs have been painted.

The McBride Hall girls will soon be experts in playing base ball by the way they are practicing.---C. M.

Chemawa second team batted Woodburn pitcher all over the field, who is known as Joe LaRose former student of Chemawa.---P. Q.

Harry Queachpalma who was shot on the hand by a gopher gun is improving and will soon be able to play ball with the second team who missed him very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray of Salem were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell on Sunday.

The painter boys painted the roof of the laundry Monday and it adds greatly to its appearance.

The town people came out to Chemawa in full force on Sunday. Evrey car was crowded with visitors.

Mr Bewley has put the sewing machines in the tailor shop in fine order, for which the boys are very thankful.

A letter has been received from James Olney saying that he had a pleasant trip home and sends his best wishes to friends in Chemawa.---H. B.

A number of boys attended the Norris & Rowes circus last Saturday in Salem and returned after spending a very pleasant time and all perfectly satisfied with the performances they saw while there.

PATTON BROS.
SALEM'S BEST BOOK STORE.