

PUPILS' ITEMS

Some of the grades are out making gardens to day.—I. P.

We were all glad to have Mr. Forbes with us last Sunday.—A. M.

Mr. Woods took a few of the boys to the circus last Saturday. A. L.

The first and second teams are hard at practice every evening.—J. B.

Last Monday four boys were out laying out the school gardens.—G. H.

We are patiently waiting for the Daisy Club to appear again.—G. K.

Mr. Hulden and his force of boys are repairing and remodeling the fruit drier --L. R.

Mr. Bittles was here visiting his children and they were very glad to see him.—J. R.

The roses are now beginning to bloom and the lawns are improving every day.—G. D.

We all enjoyed the band concert given last Sunday evening by the band boys.—L. C.

Emma Shepard is making herself a very pretty dress and she is very proud of it.—S. D.

Miss Skipton took the sewing room girls out for a walk Friday and we all had a nice time.—M. M.

Margaret Lowry who was promoted to the seventh grade the first of April stood highest in the class this month.—C. L.

Every body wants to turn out the big day is approaching for the big relay race. Turn out and cheer our boys on to victory -- T. C.

Billet Lobert making fast progress on his trombone. M. G.

Thomas Williams is getting to be a good clarinet player.—G. B.

The dining hall looks very nice since the new curtains have been put up. M. L.

The blacksmith boys are putting in new gutters on the blacksmith shop—O. L.

Helen and Laura Harnden's sister was here from Portland to visit them last Sunday. C. H.

Christine Lane is seen in her room every spare time she has practicing hard on her guitar.

The first team had a game with the O. A. C. boys last Saturday but they were defeated.—J. B.

Msr. McIntyre is here visiting her children Maudie and Roy who are pupils of Cemawa.—A. M.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. spent a very enjoyable evening at Old Chema-wa last Saturday.—G. C.

May Mercier is now working in the sewing room and I hope that in the near future she will be a good dress maker.—E. S.

During all spare moments Milton Godowa can be seen shining the floor in his room. He is a first class housekeeper.—J. E.

There are many talented debaters here but they do not know it. Such as Lizzie Frazier who has been here for nearly three years and has just recently joined the Nonparils and is now seating up in the Literary work she is now able to compete with any of our other debaters.—B. C.