

THE CHEMAWA AMERICAN

ELSEWHERE IN THE SERVICE

Percy Cable, Reuben Taylor and Howling Wolf of Darlington, Okla. were fined $25.00 each and given 5 days in jail for eating mescal bean in violation of the Oklahoma law.

The Chippewa Herald.

Dr. W. H. Winslow, Supt. of Genoa Indian School, resigned the superintendency a few days ago. It is reported he will go into the drug business in Colorado. The Doctor has been connected with the school the past six years. It has made substantial progress under his supervision. The Herald wishes Dr. Winslow success in his new field of labor.

Native american.

Inspector and Mrs. Churchill arrived in Phoenix Monday Morning.

The people of the Phoenix Indian school were very much surprised at the marriage of Mr. William Hackendorf and Miss Florence E. Noland Wednesday, April 17. Mr. Hackendorf entered the service in January, 1901, at Fort Lewis, Colorado. He was later principal teacher at Sacaton and came to Phoenix in the fall of '03. Miss Noland entered the service in September, 1891. She has taught at Chillico, Rainy Mountain, Albuquerque and Phoenix, coming to this school about six years ago, where she has been thoroughly identified with all its interests.

Talks and Thoughts.

INDIAN POST-MASTER.

Roy Stabler, an Omaha of the class of '96, has been appointed post-master at Macy, Neb. He entered upon his duties February first.

The Indian Leader.

Mr. Louis Roy, a Chillico pupil, has been appointed printer and assistant disciplinarian at Flandreau.

William D. Leonard has been appointed superintendent of the Seger Indian School Oklahoma.

C. A. Bates, special allotting agent, and party are locating allotments on the Pine Ridge, South Dakota, reservation.

Senator Charles Curtis has returned from his trip to Panama and reports a satisfactory trip. Twenty four thousand men are at work on the canal and it is a remarkable sight. Senator Curtis was ill for several days while away.

New type, new cases, new galleys and much other new material arrived last Monday and the printers are kept busy getting it located. They are as happy as a little girl with a new doll and anxious to make use of their gift.

GO TO

The

CHICAGO STORE

FOR

BARGAIN IN DRY GOODS

