

LOCALS

Miss Miller has some very nice tomato plants in her school room.

Several have already planted their feet in the school garden this spring.

Minnie Piute and Susie Walker were promoted from the mixed grade to 3rd B.

We are all glad to see Evelyn McCoy who has been in the hospital back in school again.

When one of the printers was asked why he put the "pi" that he had made, on the window, he replied, "To cool."

The members of the mess are very grateful to Mr. Bewley for having repaired the clocks in the dining-room and kitchen.

The girls of McBride Hall like to play baseball, but they should remember that there are sick people in the hospital, and not play such a noisy game.

When Easterners come to Oregon, they have to learn what spuds are, and the value of "two bits" and what the little boy means when he says "I am fagged."

A number of Chemawa people attended the opera given at Salem Opera House a week ago Friday evening. The opera "A Yankee Tourist" in which Raymond Hitchcock was the "star" was very good and full of pretty catchy music.

Irene Peone received a beautiful black skirt from her mother recently and she is very proud of it. Irene can make beautiful skirts herself and we hope she will make one for her kind mother and let her see that Chemawa is helping her to become a help to the "old folks at home."

Sunday was a beautiful day.

We have had no rain since the 17th of April.

Esther Napoleon played a very nice piano solo.

Mr. Brewer was at Tacoma, Washington, part of this week.

The open door meeting held in chapel on Sunday night was led by Lavina DeVault.

Mr. and Mrs. Billings of Grants Pass, Oregon are here visiting their children who are pupils of this school.

Miss Dohse and five girls went to Mrs. Zalinsky's silver wedding last Sunday where they spent a very pleasant time.

The blacksmiths were sorry to see Frank Sorahan leave. He is going to Hood River, Oregon to work at his trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Teabo have pitched their tent back of the small girls' home and they began sleeping in it Wednesday night.

Messrs. Leon Woodin, Stoudenmeyer and Gessner were Chemawa visitors recently. Mr. Woodin was chief clerk here for a number of years, Mr. Stoudenmeyer was our band leader and Mr. Gessner who was always one of our very good friends has become a famous violinist, having studied in Prague Bohemia under a world famous teacher.
