

Robert Brothers, a Shoshone, took the document and carried it to Barlow, where he was relieved by Nick Mack, a Klamath Indian boy. Mack was relieved by Frank Dan, a 14-year-old Muckleshoot, who ran to Oregon City, where he turned the letter over to Peter Casey. Casey in turn was relieved by Apis Goudy, and this lad carried the letter nearly to Fulton, entrusting it to Amos Smoker.

For the Y. M. C. A., Sidney Rasmussen started the race, and he was relieved by Henry Talbot, followed in turn by J. G. Arbuthnot, Will Darcey, Al Newson, Floyd Kees, Walter Backus, L. L. Street, Earl Leonard and Fred Newell.

Physical Director Grilley, of the association, who is one of the first persons to propose the race, said last night that it was a great success and several other important athletic institutions of the state have signified their intention of entering, and Mr. Grilley hopes to make the event one of the annual athletic events in the state.

Sympathies of Salem People Went With the Indians

A crowd of about 200 men, women and children gathered at the Capitol this morning to see the start in the Portland Y. M. C. A.—Chemawa relay race between Salem and Portland. Private Secretary W. N. Gatens, of the Governor's office, had given each of the starters a message from the Governor to Mayor Lane, and when the Indian and the white man toed a crack in the sidewalk at the west approach to the Capitol, the crowd waited breathlessly for the word to start. But there was nothing spectacular. At 9:40 Mr. Gatens gave the word "Go" and the two runners started off at a slow trot that had little appearance of a foot race. No bets were made, but the desire was apparently unanimous that the Chemawa team should win. Among those who were present at the start were ex-Governor Lord, C. B. Moores, Judge H. L. Benson, W. P. Campbell, of the Chemawa Indian School; R. J. Hendricks, Physical director Forbes, of the Sa'em Y. M. C. A., and nearly all of the state officers. Bulletins from the race were eagerly watched until the race ended.

[Oregonian, May 5, '07.]

0 0 0

The Portland Y. M. C. A. wants a field meet with us some time in June.

0 0 0

The boys should get together and practice their yells and show the white boys that they can give a college yell as well as a war whoop.

0 0 0

We were sorry to hear that our first baseball team were defeated by the O. A. C. at Corvallis Saturday by a score of nine to six, but the result would have been different we think if two of our best players who were unable to be with the team had been present. Reub Saunders went with the relay race and Peter Casey was running.

0 0 0

The crowd of Chemawa people who went to the top of the hill at the second station to see the race had a very merry and exciting time. Some of the boys were perched up on top of the highest fir trees and saw Mr. Campbell coming in the automobile way down the road ahead of the runner—Walter Haight. They were sure it was Mr. Campbell when they saw that left arm waving frantically in the air.