PUPICS' TEEMS

Mr. Mudge and a force of boys are moving the old jail to its new location back the old printing office.

Will the jail ever be occupied after it is moved? We hope not.

The harness makers have an order from Mr. T. W. Potter for a set of harness.

Lavina Du Vault is working in the Mess Kitchen and likes the change altho we miss her at the sewing room.

Mr Westley is very busy fixing his gardens for this year.--C. R.

Mr Mann is fixing the scales by the commissary. He will soon be through.

—, F. H.

Henry Nelson made a shoeing hammer last week in The blacksmith shop. —, O. F.

Walter Miller and Walter Mc Gibbon proved themself to be first class painters by finishing one building with their very last drop of roof paint.

The painters are through painting roofs for a while till the roof paint comes.

Trey say that sail the painters belong to a union.

Ask Walter Mc Gibbon who is the doctor among the painters.— T. G. H.

Everett, Ivin snd Iva Billings left for their home last Sunday morning.

Since there is another club in McBride Hall the Daisy Club is anxious to see them appear.—E. N.

Jennie Luke is a fine worker in Miss Skipton's sewing room.—M. N.

Robert Albertson who has been away for some time has returned and is working in the plumber shop —J. L. A double game of basket ball was played between the boys of the school Saturday night and all who attended enjoyed the game.

The tailors and the dairy boys played a very nice game of basketball last Saturday evening the score was 17 to 6 in favor of the tailors.

Robert Cameron says that the old press is so feeble that it needs the same care as an old grandfather.

Dr. Tucker visited the printing office last Saturday morning.

We are all glad to see little Daisy Nelson up once more. She has been on the sick list. A. C.

PROPOSALS FOR FISH, Chemawa, Oregon, May 14, 1907 Sealed proposals, plainly marked on the outside of the envelope "PRO-POSALS FOR FISH," and addressed to the undersigned at Chemawa, Oregon, will be received at the Indian School until 2 o'clock, P. M., Saturday June 8, 1907, inviting prop sals for furnishings and delivering at the school, as required during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, about twenty-six thousand (26,000) pounds of fish, as per specifications obtainable at the school. Bidders must state in their bid the price of the fish per pound. The fish, when delivered, shall be subject to rigid inspection. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids or any part of any bid if deemed for the best interests of the service. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check or draft on some United States depository or solvent national bank, made payable to the order of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, for at least five per cent, of the bid, which check or draft shall be forfeited to the United States in case a bidder receiving an award shall fail to execute promptly a satisfactory contract in accordance with his proposal; otherwise to be returned to the bidder. Bids accompanied by cash in lieu of of certified check will not be considered. For further information apply to Edwin L. Chalcraft, Superintendent.