

 LOCALS

Peter Seltice went to Portland last Monday.

Mr. Silas Ashley of Chemawa is temporary night-watchman.

Another carload of flour was received and unloaded Wednesday.

A number of Chemawa people are interested in the "fire sale" today.

Miss Frances Howard of Salem was a Chemawa visitor Sunday afternoon.

Miss Hutchinson served lemonade and cake to a few friends Saturday evening.

The supply of dried apples for the fiscal year 1907 arrived at the school on May 14.

Messrs. D. E. Brewer and Ernest Brewer accompanied the baseball team to The Dallas, Oregon, yesterday.

Since the Chapel piano has been repaired the music is much improved, the voices don't sound so cracked.

Mr. Gouge of Salem visited the "AMERICAN" office Wednesday evening, and found several faithful boys at work.

Mr. I. B. Rhodes, Y. M. C. A. Secretary of Idaho and Oregon, visited the Chemawa Y. M. C. A. last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann have pitched their tent back of their house and are sleeping outside on account of Mrs. Mann's health.

Joe Dillstrom, Eugene Williams, Martin Sampson and Albert Garry were selected to attend the Gearhart Y. M. C. A. annual conference to be held from June 15 to 24.

Miss Lenna Kavanagh of Salem was a guest of Miss Irene Campbell during the week.

A large number of McBride Hall girls went out walking last evening with different employes and friends.

Mr. Charles Cutter complimented the school upon its excellent singing on Sunday night. He says there is no singing in Portland that equals it.

Mrs. Doherty received the sad news of the death of her mother at La Crosse, Wis., on Sunday morning. She has the sympathy of her many friends in her bereavement.

Chemawa is gradually losing her "back yard". All the trash now goes into a fill-in back of the new barns, while the former dump places will finally become lawns, after the grass comes up.

Mr. Chas. Cutter of Portland a former pupil of Chemawa visited friends at the school last Sunday. He sang several beautiful songs in the chapel after service on Sunday evening which delighted those who had the pleasure of listening to them.

Miss Irene Campbell won in the trout-out on Wednesday afternoon and has been chosen to represent Willamette University in the "Tennis Tournament" tomorrow between the Willamette University and the Salem High School.

On Wednesday morning a gasoline stove exploded in the millinery department on the second floor of Jos. Meyers and Sons' store which set the large building on fire. The fire was not put out until the second and third floors were totally destroyed. The first floor and the goods on that floor were saved.