

Weekly Chemawa American

VOL. 10.

JUNE 7, 1907.

NO. 13.

GENERAL NEWS

Mr. Liphart visited his family Thursday.

A length of hose has been issued to the clerks so that they can look after the lawn in front of the office which they have volunteered to do.

The engineer boys think a great deal of their instructor, Mr. Bewley.

The 8th grades are having their final examination for promotions this week.

Miss Skipton and a few small girls assisted the tailors in sewing on buttons.

There was some good rooting led by Peter Seltice at the game on Monday afternoon.

All the clerks at Jos. Meyer's store spent the afternoon at Old Chemawa on Memorial Day.

Gus Bowe chop was at his old stand in the mailing room this week while John McCush is out.

Mrs. Theisz has sent her McBride Hall girls souvenir postals from the different points of interest that she is visiting.

Emma Morrisette and Stella Reed of Umatilla Agency, Oregon are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Farrow.

We are having excellent strawberry short cakes at the mess. Mrs. Bewly is a first class cook.

There were about ninety lady em- and girls from Chemawa witnessed the field-meet at Willamette.

On Friday night the Nonpareil, Estelle Reel, Hiawatha and Excelsior Literary Societies, held their final meeting. It was an entertainment and a very enjoyable one.

Mrs. Thorpe, nee Nellie Runnels, an ex-student, arrived yesterday morning bringing the following pupils from Loomis, Washington: Chester Alvira and Alvin Smith and Josephine Harris.

The services of rain-maker Hatfield are needed at Chemawa, unless some one, whose duty it is to look after the lawn and roses at Chemawa gets busy and gives them a substitute for the artificial rain-maker. This is necessary if Chemawa is going to keep up its reputation for the most beautiful and the "Rose School" of the Service.