

LOCALS

Dr. Tucker and Mr. Enright are athletic enthusiasts.

Robt. Davis calsoined Miss Vaughn's room this week.

Eugene Williams taught Mr. Woods class on Sunday.

Chicken, new peas, and ice cream at the mess last Sunday.

Willie Ingram class '02 visited the printing office Wednesday.

Mr. Teabc made a business trip to Huntington this week.

Misses Brewer and Jones had lunch at old Chemawa Sunday evening.

Tom Lawny of Grande Ronde visited his son Tom a few days this week.

Dr. Tucker now sleeps on the porch off from the boys ward in the hospital

Miss Skipton returned from her visit to Corvallis Monday and reports a pleasant trip.

Miss Brown, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Cox visited the American office Saturday on business.

Arthur H. Williams, a former cook at Chemawa, was a visitor on Sunday morning.

Miss Lolor spent Saturday and Sunday visiting Father Daten and Miss Talshi at Brooks.

Mr. LaChance of Grand Ronde was up here for a few days last week visiting his sons David and Edwin.

Miss Brown attended church in Salem on Sunday and Miss Vaughn taught her Sunday school class.

Mr. Mrs., and Miss Evelyn Woods attended Corpus Christi in Salem on Sunday. Evelyn sang with the choir.

Mrs. Campbell touched the flying discs with her umbrella in one of McMinnville's wild throws on Saturday.

Misses Luedke and Johnston and a number of girls spent Sunday afternoon at Old Chemawa, which is quite a resort.

As Mr. Gouge has discontinued his visits to Chemawa on Sunday evenings Rev. Winans came out last Sunday.

George Washoe and Jas. Sloan had an ice cream stand at the field-meet on Saturday and were well patronized.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Foutz Mrs. Swartz's brother and his wife are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Swartz and Children.

Hattie Mann is taking lessons on the piano from Miss Brewer and she is faithful in her practice as evidenced by the progress she is making.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Miss Brown and Miss Hutcheson attended the Episcopal church in Salem on Sunday. We have quite a number of Episcopalians among the Chemawa people.

GO TO

THE Chicago Store

FOR

BARGAINS IN DRY GOODS.