

 LOCALS

Miss Frances Newcomb is visiting friends in Salem.

Mr Brewer made a business trip north the latter part of last week.

Miss Skipton spent Sunday with her father and friends in Salem.

Mrs. Tucker and children spent Sunday with her husband at Chemawa.

Miss Dohse spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Ethel Parrish in Portland.

Miss Alice Chalcraft will play at Miss Weller's musical recital in Salem this week.

Mrs. Brewer and Teabo drove over to Miss Harold's Sunday afternoon and came home with delicious cherries.

Miss Irene Campbell played Chopin's Polonaise in C Sharp minor at the commencement exercises of the College of Music in Salem.

Leon Reinken, one of the bright boys of the 7th grade has gone to his home in Alaska. He will be very much missed and we hope he will soon return.

Miss Irene Campbell sent a bushel basket full of roses to Prof. Von Jessen on Monday with which to decorate the church for the commencement of the College of Music in Salem.

Last Sunday quite a number of the members of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. were invited in Salem. They went to the Methodist church and heard the Rev. Clarence True Wilson of Portland preach a most excellent sermon.

Our old friend Rev. Burdette gave us a very helpful talk on Saturday night.

Joe Buttler of North Yakima, Wash., paid a short visit to Thos. Yallup last week.

Rain was threatening all Sunday afternoon, but did not come till late in the evening.

The Club Room in Mitchell Hall seems to take the eye of visitors, especially the pennant of Tekoa, Washington.

Miss Miller went out on her bicycle last Sunday afternoon to visit Miss Harold who lives about three miles from the school.

The catapillars are getting on the rose bushes around Mr. Campbell's house. Miss Irene is kept busy picking them off.

Several girls of McBride Hall were out cherry-hunting in the country the first of the week. They returned with several bucketfuls.

The mess have not suffered at all from the need of a cook through the efforts of Miss Lalor who has done excellently for an amateur. She does it like a professional.

The first bloom of the roses is about over, altho' the bushes are still full of roses there are not as many as there were a week ago. Now lookout for the magnificent second bloom.

Miss Lalor gave a pea shelling bee at the mess to her young birds one evening. The principal object for the young ladies was to find a pod with nine peas in it. After searching in vain for an hour, a "hopeless one" found it, placed it over her door but no man has crossed her threshold yet.