

LOCALS

Frank Coburn was news hunting Monday.

We all enjoyed the lawn social Saturday evening.

Mr. Mann made the ice-cream for the sociable on Tuesday.

Joe Dillstrom will go with the Salem Y. M. C. A. out camping and will leave on the 17th.

Mr. Hulden and his detail have been making general repairs upon the commissary this week.

Wm. Heater of Newburg, ex-student of Chemawa visited the school and friends last Sunday.

Fortunato Jayme left on Monday for Gervais to work in a printing office for part of the summer.

Mrs. Brewer treated her laundry girls to short cake Tuesday afternoon.

Misses Cox and Hendley attended the closing services of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox spent Thursday in Turner airing up their cottage.

Mr. Smith and John Poone changed the arrangement of the lights inside and outside of the commissary.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Newcomb attended the commencement of the College of Music in Salem Monday evening.

Ethel Chase's brother, Arthur, visited her last Saturday from Salem. He just arrived from New York. Ethel was glad to see him as it has been three years since she saw him. He wishes her to stay as he likes the school well.

Misses Hutchinson, Lalor and Postley attended commencement at Mt. Angel on Wednesday.

Mr. Chalcraft had an accident in stepping on a nail, and was confined to his room all day Tuesday.

Miss Leona Hirsch of Salem and Mr. L. J. Berkey of Minneapolis, Minnesota, were the guests of Miss Irene Campbell Wednesday.

The Superintendent's carriage has been overhauled by the blacksmiths and wagonmakers and is now in first class condition.

The sixth and seventh grades are having their final test this week, and are trying hard to make a good average. It requires 75 percent to be able to pass to the 8th grade.

Several of the boys have been hired out to pick strawberries for Mr. Jurgeson and Mr. James Burette who have large patches near the school. The boys are getting twenty cents a crate.

The Y. M. C. A. gave an ice-cream social in the gymnasium. The day for the purpose of sending its delegates to the annual conference at Gearhart. Eugene Williams, Albert Garry, Martin Sorenson and Webster Hudson will represent the Chemawa branch at the conference.

