

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

The garden boys latest task is to pick strawberries.

David Graham is making a discus in the blacksmith shop.

Silas Albert and Eddie Somerville are repairing the Woodshed.

Mr. Bewley and his force of boys are repairing the big pump this week.

The sewing room girls will finished the girls percale dresses this week.

Marion Curl is cleaning the wood work of the Medium sized boys home.

Caroline Ferris and Mary Gibeau are now getting their nurse uniforms made.

Grover Colby and Ignatius Bart are putting new doors in the Office this week.

The Gymnasium looks very much improved since it has received a new coat of paint.

Edward Curl is making his first door with the assistance of his instructor Mr. Woods.

The sewing room girls will start on the McBride Hall girls gingham dresses this week.

Levi Sorter who has been working in the Plumber shop is now hauling wood at the power house.

Mary McCush was called over to the mess Monday morning to set a batch of light bread for the mess.

John Peazzoni is making copper pins in the blacksmith shop which he intends to send to Jamestown.

Mr. Westley and his boys are through planting potatoes this week and also cultivating the early potatoes.

Mr. Mann with a f w of his blacksmith boys repaired the water pipes at the dining hall and the girls home.

Several of Miss Brown's sewing room girls have been detailed to the tailoring department to assist the tailors with with their work.

ELSEWHERE

Mr. A. J. Watkins arrived from Chemawa on the evening of May 29, to take the position of assistant disciplinarian. —Indian Leader.

As two years have been added to the course of study at Haskell there will be no academic graduates this year, although a number will complete the Eighth grade work. There will be no graduates from the domestic and industrial departments, however, and the program will be an interesting one.—The Indian Leader.

An informal reception was held in the large parlor at the girls' building Friday evening in honor of Hon. Francis E. Leupp, United States Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Mrs. E. E. Newton who are visitors at the school. —Native American.

We have just received a diploma awarded to the Phoenix Indian School by the educational department at the first annual territorial fair for the first prize for educational exhibit from manual training schools. It is signed by J. C. Adams, B. A. Packard, and T. E. Pollock, of the Territorial Fair Commission. —Native American.

$30,000 has been recently donated to Hampton by Mrs. Delia Clark of Brooklyn in memory of her husband for the erection of a Y. M. C. A. building which will be provided with dormitory accommodations, and is to be used for the religious training of the young men.