

So far I have heard nothing from New York as to my successor, but we are planning to get away as early as we can in the fall.

Wales, Feb., 19, 1907. James F. Cross.

Helen is Mr. Cross's oldest daughter who went out last fall to assist in the mission work.

Word Carrier.

Should you ask me whence these frowns,

Whence these sighs and awful groanings,

Whence these anxious looks and moanings,

I should answer, I should tell you
From the scholars and the students,
Who now slowly see approaching
The dreaded time of the exams.

Then you hear the students wailing,
Hear them crying and lamenting
To each other as they're talking.

"O, my classmates! O, my classmates!
Listen to my tale of sorrow,
Listen to my wail of woe.

O, that I had studied harder;
O, that I had worked more faithful;
Then no sorrow and lamenting
Would be now my brain tormenting."

—Ex.

Athletics

Dallas vs Chemawa

Our team played the Dallas team last Saturday at Dallas and defeated them 4 to 0, though our team was not very strong, as Reuben Saunders and Chas. Larsen were unable to go with the team.

The line up.

Dallas	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Teats, cf	4	0	2	0	1	0
Barham, 3b	4	0	0	1	1	1
Boydston, rf	4	0	1	1	0	0
Fenton, 1b	4	0	1	7	0	1
Myers, p	4	0	0	1	6	1
Shaw, c	3	0	0	12	1	0
Elder, lf	3	0	0	1	0	0
Gunderson, ss	3	0	0	4	2	0
Syron, 2b	3	0	1	0	10	2

Totals 32 0 5 27 24 5

Chemawa	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Carey, 2b	4	0	1	5	3	2
Poland, p	4	2	0	0	11	0
Lane, 1. 3b	4	2	1	1	2	0
Teabo, ss	4	0	3	2	5	0
Lane, A. c	3	0	1	7	1	1
Washoe, 1b	3	0	1	13	0	0
Sorter, lf	3	0	0	1	0	0
David, rf	3	0	0	1	4	0
McCully, cf	3	0	1	0	0	1

Totals 31 4 8 27 22 3

Score by innings.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Dallas	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	5	5
Chemawa	2	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	4	8	3

Summary. Struck out, By Poland 6. By Myers 4. By Syron 7. Bases on balls by Myers 4. Stolen bases, Poland 2, Washoe 1, Fenton 1. Time 1 hour 5 minutes.

The Juniors defeated the Y. M. C. A. boys of Salem last Friday by a score of 10 to 3. The feature of the game was a home run by Alden Clark and a three base hit by Calvin Darnell.