

LOCALS

Rosa Winslow left for Grande Ronde Saturday.

Ella and Katie Brewer played at the recital in Salem Wednesday evening.

Miss Gertrude Brewer will play at Miss Keller's recital next Friday evening.

Mr. Zimmerman of Republic, Wash. is visiting his children Elmer, Mattie and Eleanor.

Miss Hutchinson shipped two crates of cherries to her home at Seattle on Wednesday.

The seventh grade finished their final examination last week and not one in the class failed.

Reuben Saunders was at Silets so that he could not play in our team on Saturday at Dallas.

Ernest Brewer went with the baseball team to Dallas last Saturday and served as score keeper.

Miss Dohse took Teddy Kluche to town on Wednesday and had his picture taken in his nice new suit.

Miss Ethel Parrish has returned from the Portland High School to spend her vacation with Miss Dohse.

Essie Reed, one of our best girls, left for Northern Washington yesterday and many friends were at the train.

The little office orderlies enjoy very much the privilege of watering the lawn in front of the office, especially on these warm days.

Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. Teaboh, Miss Hutchinson, Margaret Lowry, Sarah and Ruth Brewer, and Lena Charles attended the recital in Salem Wednesday evening.

Dr. Tucker treated his patients to some peanuts then took them out walking one evening. He takes his patients for walks quite frequently.

Friends of Mr. Antoine Caisse are in receipt of souvenir postals from him at Washington, D.C. where he is now located in his new position.

The employes, and mess building was repainted white this week and it looks like a new building. All the climbing rose bushes were pulled down until the painting finished, but they seemed to suffer no injury at all.

Three of the printers are at the Rose Fiesta in Portland playing in the band today, one is near Turner Camping with the Salem Y. M. C. A. boys and another is at Gearhart attending the Y. M. C. A. annual Convention.

Some one's clean clothes were confiscated on Sunday morning from the line back of McBride Hall, and the owner will have to call at the office to redeem them. Do not forget that an order was issued sometime ago that no washing is to be left on the lines on Sunday.

Thomas Spedis from Yakima Reservation arrived at the school Monday evening and entered school. At his request his long hair was cut the next day after a photograp had been taken of him. He has entered the second grade in school, but will likely make rapid progress as he is anxious to learn.

♦♦♦

PATTON BROS.
SALEM'S
BEST BOOK STORE.