

LOCALS

The band did some faithful practicing during the week.

Several of the engineers are fixing the furnace so they can burn coal.

Mrs Dohse is treating the mess to radishes from the literary garden.

Phyllis and Clarence Cooper are now out of school and enjoying their vacation.

Mrs. Mary Mercier of Grande Ronde was a visitor at Chemawa the latter part of last week.

Mrs. and Miss Irene Campbell went to Portland Friday afternoon and returned Saturday evening.

Miss Vaughn, Geo. Dougherty, Miss Jones and Mr. Woods have recently handed in their subscriptions.

The classes have been shifting about the different schoolrooms this week on account of the school building.

The rainy weather lasted from Sunday evening the 9th until Saturday evening the 15th, raining a little each day.

Misses Luedke and Johnston began about 4 o'clock in the morning in order to get breakfast at the mess last Saturday.

Joe Dillstrom is camping with Mr. Hatt and his Y. M. C. A. boys east of Turner. The seventh grade is looking for a mess of catfish.

Levi Sorter taught Sunday school class last Sunday and he makes a very nice teacher for he explains the lesson to the children so they can understand them.

Misses Lalor and Postley went out and picked one half crate each of straw-berries Monday evening.

Misses Luedke, Johnson and James Smith went to Mr Westley's in quest of cherries one afternoon this week.

James Sloan left for his home at Ronnan Mont., last Monday morning. Several of the boys were down to the train to see him off.

Misses Brewer, Jones and Woods took twenty-two of the smallest girls out walking one evening and treated them to cherries.

The seventh grade final examination is over now, and Calvin Darnell stood the highest in the class—his average was 97 $\frac{1}{2}$ percent.

The band boys are looking for their new instruments. Every time a train stops, one of them would say, "Lets go and unload the new instruments."

Miss Ella Hirsch of Salem who has been on a long visit to Portland was a guest of Mrs. Campbell on Sunday. Miss Hirsch's friend were all glad to see her and hope she will often visit Chemawa.

Mrs. Chalcraft, Misses Skipton, Jones, and Gertrude and Ruth Brewer attended the Recital given by the primary class of Miss Elma Weller in the First Prebyterian Church of Salem. Alice Chalcraft played in two numbers.

The friends of Miss Kauffman, professor of English at Willamette University are very sorry to hear that she has severed her connection with that College and has gone to her home in Chicago. Miss Kauffman will leave for Italy in a few months.