Always take off your hat when inside.

Never give your opinion until it is asked for.

Do not put off until tomorrow what you can do today.

Do not walk around the grounds as though you own them.

A fool is never so foolish but that he can teach another fool something.

If you wish to be happy you must at first strive to make other people happy.

Always bear in mind that you are not the only one in the house, and take up less room and make less noise.

Do not hold your head up too high
—you may stub your toe, and not too low—you may bump your head.

Do not go around with your head down, or your hands in your pockets, people will take you for a "scrub," and their guess will not be bad.

Remember that it isn't the fellow who makes the most noise that does the most.

After an illness of only a few days in the hospital and though receiving the best of care and medical attention from the nurse and physician Oscar Bowie died of peritonitis last Friday morning.
He was a nice quiet and obedient young man who came with the party of pupils from Del Norte County, Cal. last winter.
He was learning carpentry and was getting along nicely in school and in his trade when taken ill. The funeral service on Saturday were conducted by Rev.
Burdett.
