

LOCALS

Evelyn Woods spent a day with Miss Lizzie Westley.

Two men in Salem were sunstruck on Tuesday of this week.

Miss Irene Campbell is busy making jelly and putting up fruit.

Miss Lizzie Westley, who has been ill for several weeks is improving.

Mrs. Cooper attended the camp meeting at Turner, Oregon, last Saturday.

Mr. Westley is very liberal with the cherries grown on his place near Chemawa.

The Y. M. C. A. delegates to the Gearheart conference returned Monday evening.

While in Portland the band boys sent pretty souvenir postals back to their friends at Chemawa.

Mr. Carson of Toledo, Oregon, stopped off between trains and visited friends at the school Friday.

Miss Frances Newcomb returned to Chemawa last week after a good visit with friends in Salem.

The Sunday school classes met at different places Monday evening to study the lesson for Sunday.

Mr. Robert DePoe stopped off at Chemawa on his way home to visit his sister-in-law Saturday and also had a short visit with his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and Miss Irene attended the automobile races in Portland on Saturday and saw Barney Oldfield, the greatest automobile driver in the world break his own record.

Peter Menard and family of Grande Ronde were Chemawa visitors this week.

There is a new litter of kittens at the dairy barn but they are needed there.

Miss Postley preserved strawberries this week and mailed some cherries to a friends in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Chalcraft and Alice attended the wedding of a friend in Portland Wednesday evening.

Miss Bowman has recently joined Misses Brewer and Jones in their sleeping apartment on the second story of the employees' porch.

Mrs. Pheisz returned from her Eastern trip on vacation Tuesday morning. Every one was glad to see her back. She visited Niagara Falls while en route.

There was quite a crowd of Chemawa people accompanied the band to the Portland Rose Fiesta on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Chalcraft, Misses Lalor, Jones, Hutchinson, Johnston, Leudke Mrs. Brewer and Miss Irene Campbell composed the jolly party who went with the band boys.

The band participated in the Fiesta at Portland last Friday leaving on the morning train and returning in the late train. They wore their new uniforms, but in parade, they wore white trousers, white caps, and white shoes with beautiful wreaths of Chemawa roses draped from one shoulder and completely encircling the body.

PATTON BROS.
SALEM'S
BEST BOOK STORE