

Bible under the leadership of some of the Conference faculty. Again the bell rang for the Institutes which consisted of Foreign and Home Missions. From 9:45 A. M. to 10:30 the Student and City Associations Conference are held. Here all problems of the Associations are thoroughly discussed. From 10:30 to 10:45 A. M. we have recess and Mr. Grilly of Portland conducts the calisthenics. Many were out playing ball, putting shot, hot hand, etc. From 10:45 until dinner time we had platform addresses by various able speakers such as Fred B. Smith, I. B. Rhodes, Wm. A. Foulkes, Thornton R. Penfield, Walter T. Davis, Mr. Brockman, I. E. Jenterson, S. B. L. Penrose, J. M. Dean and E. M. Rood. From 2:00 to 5:00 P. M. was devoted to recreation, and it will be very interesting to tell the events of certain days as well as we can tell of the life work meeting. Monday afternoon the Conference Athletic Committee announced that we could go to the stranded ship and so quite a bunch of us went and were all charged 10 cents to go aboard. While on board we went all through and even climbed the masts.

Tuesday afternoon a game of baseball was played between the Conference faculty and the Western Washington nine. The faculty being defeated. On Wednesday another game of baseball was played between the Inland Empire and the Willamette Valley delegation. Willamette Valley was defeated. On Thursday a forenoon another game was played which was for the championship of the conference, Western Washington and the Inland Empire; the Inland Empire team took the championship. After supper about one half hour was devoted to the meetings of each delegation. The Willamette delegation and Chemawa held theirs together. Nearly an hour was devoted to the meetings of Personal or Life work groups.

At 7:30 P. M. the Life Work meetings were held every evening and we had the pleasure of listening to the above named gentlemen. At 9:30 P. M. was the retiring hour.

The following colleges, universities, and schools were represented and the number of delegates: University of Puget Sound, 18; University of Oregon, 13; Whitman College, 7; University of Washington, 8; Willamette University, 6; Whitworth College, 6; Oregon Agricultural College, 6; University of Idaho, 5; Chemawa Indian School, 4; Pacific College, 4; Pacific University, 4; Philomath College, 3; Washington State College, 3; McMinnville College, 2; Western Normal, 2; Cheney Normal, 1; Ashland Normal, 1; Albany Normal, 1; Montana Agricultural College, 1. The following city associations were also represented: Portland, 8; Seattle, 3; Tacoma, 1; Salem, 2; N. Yakima, 2; Walla Walla, 1. The leaders and speakers were seventeen and the total number of the attendance of the conference was 128 men.

—Webster 1918

