INDUSTRIAL NOTES

This week the detail changes in the laundry.

The harness makers missed Newton Bowman very much.

Alice Donners is making a rapid progress in the sewing room.

Edward Ainsworth fixed the wringer at the laundry one day last week.

Mr. Bowley and his boys repaired the steam mangle last week and did a neat job.

Henry Dillstrom and John Boyse has completed a set of back harness also for Mr. Peone.

Dora Gray made a delicious birth day cake for little Forrest Cooper whose birthday was the 28th of June.

Haynes Gateman has repaired a halter for Mr. Mithers and over hauled the car riage top for Mr. Chidcraft.

Maxine J. Barnaby has just finished a single driving harness for Ignace E. Peone of Poca, Washington, a former student of Chemawa.

The laundry girls laundered 175 uniforms for the small kids last week, which gives them extra work. This week they will wash some curtains.

An order for twenty sets of harness has recently been received.

We notice that the Carlisle tailors were busy on band suits at same time our tailors wer busy on band suits.

Miss Skipton is in charge of the sewing room during the absence of the seamstress. Louise Murray and Rosetta Peco are excellent assistants.

Josie Peone is very interested in fruit canning in the Domestic Science. She will be valuable assistance to her mother who cans a great deal of fruit.

Our interests are centered upon the suits for the graduates of the class of '07 and it is remarkable to note the growing interest that manifests itself in the efforts of the students to impart to the various garments the proper style and workmanship that is consistent with high class work only.

The harness makers are very busy filling out the orders from various places: Two sets of double work harness with breeching to be sent to Fort Lapwai, Idaho. Three sets of double work harness with breeching for Klamath, Ore. Five sets of double work harness with breeching for Colville Wash.; ten sets of double work harness without breeching for another Agency.
