

GENERAL NEWS

Companies A, B, and C went to Salem on the Fourth.

Miss Frances Newcomb left on Monday for a visit with friends at Hood River.

Mr. Enright and Ernest Brewer accompanied the baseball team to Dallas Wednesday.

The Chemawa band left for Jacksonville Wednesday morning accompanied by Supt. Chalcraft.

Mr. Swartz and dog Trix had a mix up on the Fourth and it took Miss Miller to sort them out.

Saturday was a beautiful day and the Chemawa girls were out in full force shopping in Salem.

Miss Skipton entertained a few of Miss Lizzie Westly's friends in her room on Tuesday evening.

Quite a number of Chemawa boys took part in the comic parade which was held in the afternoon yesterday.

The girls who will take part in the operatta at Commencement will soon begin making their dresses.

Rev. Swanders of McMinnville while attending the Conference at Turner, came over to Chemawa and spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

Mrs. Williams of Chemawa and Mrs. Rickman of Haysville were in Salem today.

Miss Jones' cat left the commissary through a hole in the window, the big rats ran it out.

Miss Hutchinson is staying with Mrs. Chalcraft and Alice several nights during the absence of Mr. Chalcraft and Pickering to Jacksonville.

There was a snow storm followed by hail, which drifted 2½ feet in some places in Salem. Chemawa is only five miles away and yet cannot tell the same story.

Several Chemawa boys are working for the Willamette Valley Traction Co. in building the street car line between here and Portland.

The Y. M. C. A. girls gave an ice cream sociable on Tuesday evening. The cream sold so fast that there was not enough to supply all customers.

Every member of the employees Club extend their hearty thanks to Miss Lator for her excellent management of her cafe during the month of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Brewer, Woods, Cloutier and Misses Troutman, Miller, Bowman, Vaughn, Leudke, Johnston, Brewer and Jones escorted the girls to the picnic at the river on the fourth.

Mr. Quenel and family were school visitors.

Miss Miller is drying cherries and blackberries for her home in Horse Heaven, Wash.

Paul Lafferty and Jos. McKay of Grande Ronde, ex-pupils, were school visitors during the week.

Some of Miss Gertrude Brewer's music pupils and friends attended the recital in Salem given by Miss Weller and assisted by Miss Brewer at the Presbyterian church on the evening of the 28th. ult.