

PERSONAL

Mrs. Theisz is busy getting her lawn in perfect condition.

Mrs. Olney of Toppenish, Wash. was a visitor this week.

Mrs. Doherty served lemonade to her lot of boys one hot day.

Mr. Leon A. Woodin was the guest of Mr. Campbell on Wednesday.

Miss Lizzie Westley was the guest of Mrs. Skipton the first of the week.

Jack Colby and John Smith left for Clifton last Monday morning.

Henry Hodge of Requa, Cal. visited with Andrew a few days this week.

Mrs. Bewley is again in charge of the school. Her children have all been ill.

Miss Troutman, Sallie Boswell and Miss Shutzchagen were in Salem on Sunday shopping.

Miss Swartz, who is working in Portland, was down to spend Sunday with her parents.

Misses Luedke and Johnston have recently joined the open-air sanitarium on the employees' porch.

Mrs. Brewer has just finished putting up a quantity of wild blackberries, raspberries and cherries.

Mr. Chalcraft with a detail of boys cleaned out the commissary last week and put it in apple-pie order.

Mrs. McCue, an employee of the Spokane school Wash. spent a couple of days with Mrs. Doherty on her way to home at Sacramento, Cal. to spend her vacation.

Frank Sorahan is visiting friends at Chemawa.

Judge Walton's daughter of Eugene was a visitor one day this week.

Mrs. Dougherty succeeds Miss Lalor as manager of the Employees Cafe.

This has been a busy week for Mrs. Chalcraft preserving and pickling fruit.

Lloyd La Belle is here visiting friends this week and spent his Fourth in Salem.

Roy Butterfield of Siletz who was a pupil here twelve years ago was a visitor on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hunt went to their home at Tacoma from Wara Springs, Oregon on their months leave.

Stias Albert and Andrew Hodge were laying the ceiling on the porch of Mr. Bewley's cottage last Monday.

Mrs. Korter and her daughter Mrs. Annie Gunyun of Toppenish were visitors at the school the latter part of last week.

Miss Brown our seamstress left for Los Angeles Cal. Friday evening to attend the Indian Institution for about two weeks.

Miss Lalor is making a collection of mole skins for a store so it is no wonder that she is interested whenever she hears the gopher gun go off.

Miss Emma Green, one of the Roseburg teachers, and Miss Stewart of Ashland were the guests of Miss Cox this week.

Miss Maggie J. McFadden, employed at the Umanilla School, Oregon, passed through Chemawa on the train Wednesday on her way home to spend vacation.