

PUPILS' ITEMS

The school gardens are looking very well.

The sociable on Saturday evening was enjoyed by all.

Sallie Boswell is making a dress for her sister Nellie.

Mr. Leno and family of Grande Ronde are here this week.

Mattie Hayden made a very pretty white dress for Eleanor Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lachance were here visiting their sons, Edwin and David.

We all enjoyed the talk given by Mr. Knapp at the convention which was held at Chemawa.

Miss Brown our seamstress left Friday evening for California to attend the N. E. A. Convention.

The boys take all the chances they get to get work of some kind to earn a little money for the Fourth.

The painters are glad to see Eugene Williams back with them again after spending a few days at the Y. M. C. A. convention.

What is the reason if any that our boys are not represented in the Salem City League, baseball games played after 6 P. M. tri weekly.

The White House girls and girls of McBride Hall had a very exciting game of baseball Saturday. The White House won by a score of 28 to 38.

We girls are all glad to have Mrs. Theisz home again and are glad she enjoyed her trip, but we miss Miss Bowman who worked so eagerly to try and please us and still have a good record for McBride Hall.

LOCALS

Mr. Andy Lachance and family of Grande Ronde were here this week.

Mr. Joe Michel and son were among our many Grande Ronde visitors.

Misses Dohse and Parrish have their tent set up and are sleeping outside.

Mr. Chalcraft's office has just been re-painted and new moulding put on.

Beautiful and fragrant lillies are in bloom in front of the Superintendent's cottage.

Mrs. Brever served ice-cream and hot coffee to employees and friends at the river yesterday.

Mr. Leno and family spent a day at Chemawa after spending a Fourth of July celebration at Salem.

The lawn in front of the school building is being cut, this greatly improves the appearance of the lawn.

Frank Peirce who is working at Aberdeen, Washington is visiting his sisters Sarah and Mrs. McLain in this school.

Mr. Edward Flower, wife and two daughters of Bickleton, Wash. were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chalcraft the latter part of last week.

George Doherty is now clerking at Mr. Henderson's store and will work there all during his summer vacation until he resumes his course at the Capital Business College in Salem in Sept.

Mr. Cooper made ice-cream for his dairy boys who were the drivers to the picnic on the Fourth, besides supplying them with all they could eat he had plenty to treat the employees and friends.