

SUPPLEMENT

THE CHEMAWA AMERICAN

PUPILS' ITEMS

Caroline Mercier is a very nice worker.

The band went up to Salem Tuesday afternoon.

The boys are very anxious to have the race track fixed.

Pedro Chevio is getting to be a good trombone player.

The gardeners were busy all last week planting potatoes.

The fifth grade pupils have learned the art of building.

Say did you know that Paschal George is quite a cyclist?

Nellie Shepard is making a pretty dress for herself.

Frank L'Heureux has the best garden in the sixth grade.

Mrs. Cox is very proud of her dining hall girls this week.

Nora VanPelt is making a pretty dress for Anna Miller.

Belle Dillstrom has entered the sixth grade, and we wish her success.

Nellie Sloan and Emma Cayou were Miss O'Here's guests Wednesday.

The ticket agent, Miss Francis, went to Portland Tuesday on business.

Anita McLaughlin is getting to be one of the most prominent dressmakers.

Adeline Robinson is expecting her cousin, Mike Robinson to come this week.

The sixth grade have the blue and gold to show for having the best garden of 1905.

William Beach is now taking lessons in tin-ware, and has already made two frying pans.

Last week Alice Williams finished a very pretty doilie and sent it home to her mother.

Jane Evans has been doing dressmaking for employes and others, and does excellent work.

A number of girls escorted by Mrs. East went for a pleasant evening walk Wednesday last.

Earl Dillstrom is the pet among the girls. Earl is the youngest pupil enrolled in the school list.

Grover Colby and Harry Queachpalma have been putting up a screen door at Mr. Chalcraft's cottage.

Hazel Ferris says she likes her work in the sewing room. She is an expert at her work.

Emma Cayou is the star rooter at the baseball games and never fails to make her appearance rain or shine.

The seventh grade pupils paid a visit to their gardens Monday morning, and found them in an excellent condition.

The weather man who has kept us in doors for three weeks has changed his tune and we are having lovely weather.

Last Monday the fifth grade pupils were out looking at their gardens, and were glad to see the different plants coming up.

William Palmer is getting to be quite a carpenter. We hope that he will continue as he is helping repair around McBride Hall.

The pupils of Mrs. Walter M. Thornton's school of Everett, Washington, gave a very pleasing recital for the pupils of Tulalip Agency.

If all the girls would take pride in cleaning their rooms like Jessie LaBreche does, all the rooms in McBride Hall would be in good condition.

It is said that Mr. Beck was in such a hurry to climb a telegraph pole that he didn't stop for his hat when the bear was coming his way.

The seventh grade is now working in annual interest, and although it is quite hard, they are working faithfully at it and hope to progress by it.

Peter Seltice and Eugene Williams whistle like canary birds, if you would like to hear them the time they practice you have to get up very early in the morning.

The dressmakers are sorry to hear that their seamstress, Miss O'Here, is going to leave in a few weeks, on account of her health. She will stay away about three months and then she will return and attend to the dressmaking department again. We all hope that she will have a pleasant and enjoyable trip.