

 LOCALS

Mrs. Mann and family are camping and attending the Chautauqua at Gladstone Park.

Mrs. Woods and Evelyn returned last Tuesday after spending the fourth at Dallas, Oregon.

Merl Poland and George Washoe joined the Chemawa settlement at the Chautauqua on Tuesday.

Joseph and Alfred Lane returned from Siletz on Sunday evening and left the next morning to attend the Chautauqua.

Frank Coburn's cap flew out of the train coming home from Jacksonville so he returned with a red-white-and blue hat on.

Work has begun on the new hospital to be built opposite McBride Hall. The bakery is the next building we are looking for.

Walter Haight is going to leave for Horse Heaven soon, where he will do some harvesting for Mr. Fuller at $2.50 and board a day.

Helen Ernest and Laura Harnden, Mabel Nesbit, Minnie Howard, Roy and Maud McIntyre, left for Washington last Wednesday morning.

The Amateur and Sunday Leaguers met on the Chemawa diamond Tuesday evening after supper and had it out with each other. When the game ended the score stood 6-6.

Robert Davis, Robert Cameron, Peter Casey and George Washoe, who are members of the graduating class, are attending the Chautauqua, and we are wondering if they will take time to learn their orations for Commencement.

The farmers will finish making hay at the lake within a week.

Mrs. Williams, the mother of Mrs. Cloutier left on Tuesday for Seattle where she will spend the summer with her son who resides there.

Mr. Cooper Clarence Cooper and Reginald Downie made a trip to Forest Grove after a herd of Angora goats which they drove, with the aid of Buster Brown to Mr. Cooper's piece of woods a short distance south of the school.

Ernest and Miss Gertrude Brewer left Saturday afternoon for Tacoma where they will spend the summer at home Ernest has been attending the Capitol Business College in Salent the past year. Mr. Brewer left the following Monday to join his son and daughter at home to spend a short vacation.

The large party of Chemawa boys comprising the school band, the baseball team, the escorts, cooks and bottle washers, together with tents, bedding, instruments, and food took their departure the first of the week for Lincoln's landing on the Willamette to go by boat on their way to Gladstone Park. The happy party left in four wagon loads, with the band playing as they disappeared from the school.

James Smith spent the Fourth at Siletz with his friend and classmate, Arthur Bensell, who is the Agency farmer, and who was manager of the celebration at Siletz. While there he stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bensell. Mrs. Bensell formerly Ester Sutherland is also a Chemawa graduate. Mr. Bensell's friends will be glad to know that he is getting along very nicely, and is counted among the four young men of the reservation who are absolutely temperate.