

Weekly Chemawa American

VOL. 10.

NOVEMBER 1 1907.

NO. 418

ELSEWHERE

Mr. John Beck, the new tailor, arrived on Wednesday from Portland, Oregon, accompanied by his wife.—Native American.

Mr. Lee gave the first of his regular lessons on agriculture at the school house Tuesday afternoon. His subject was "Gardens and Gardening," and he made it interesting.—Native American.

Amelia Underville is working for Mrs. Roy Goodrich.—Native American.

Sherman people visiting Los Angeles are not surprised at any time to run upon old Sherman students who are employed in good positions in the city and look happy and prosperous.—Sherman Bulletin.

A Sioux Indian named Isaac Buffalo has filed a petition of bankruptcy in the United States court at Sioux Falls. He lists his liabilities as $3350, and resources as $85. This is but another instance of the Indian's adoption of the white man's methods of doing business.—Weekly Review.

A bazaar will be held in the domestic science building on Friday night next for the purpose of adding to the Christmas fund. A fish pond, which is very popular with our pupils, will be one of the attractions. The sewing departments headed by Miss Arnold, are taking considerable interest in swelling the fund for Christmas.—Sherman Bulletin.

A squad of about twenty-five Sherman young men have donned football attire and are enjoying themselves to the fullest extent on the athletic field each evening after school.—Sherman Bulletin.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert DePoe, graduates of the Normal department, visited Haskell friends for several days the latter part of September. They were accompanied by their two small sons, Reginald and Charles. Mr. DePoe is now disciplinarian and bandmaster at Siletz, Oregon. He is also justice of the peace. Mrs. DePoe has taught part of the time since living at Siletz.—Indian Leader.

The Lake Mohonk Conference of Friends of the Indian and other Dependent People will complete its twenty-fifth year at its annual meeting to be held at Lake Mohonk, New York, on the invitation of Mr. Albert K. Smiley. Oct. 23-25. Dr. Andrew S. Draper of Albany will preside, and the discussion will cover the Indians, the Philippines and Hawaii. Hon. Frances E. Leupp, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, will personally conduct one session to be given exclusively to officials in the government Indian service. At another session religious work among the Indians will be discussed.—Indian Leader.