

LOCALS

Roses are still blooming.

James Sloan is practicing some pretty new songs.

Lovely autumn weather is being enjoyed by us.

Mr. Chalcraft returned to Chemawa on Monday.

Mary Gibeau is learning how to play on the guitar.

Ernest Brewer, why not 'fess up where you were on Halowe-en.

Miss Irene Campbell is visiting Miss Aline Thompson of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer attended "The Yankee Regent" Saturday night.

Miss Christine Harold is filling the position of nurse at present.

Albert Scott and John Courts arrived at the school from Ft. Jones, California.

Mr. Bowen and his industrial detail gave the front lawn a general clean up this week.

Miss Harold presented some of her Chemawa friends with beautiful chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Theisz, and her floor girls are seen out working around McBride Hall, transplanting flowers.

Miss Brown and Miss Luedke recently purchased a typewriter and are now practicing in their leisure.

Henry Cuel, the father of Eddie, Marion and Maggie writes from Otis that they have started for Chemawa.

Maud Lowry and Christine Lane are learning some pretty pieces of music on their stringed instruments.

Miss Francis Howard of Salem is temporarily filling the position of a clerk left vacant by the resignation of Miss Lalor.

Mr. Enright returned from Grande Ronde on Wednesday bringing Eddie, Marion, Maggie, and Gertrude Curl with him.

Allen Shepard is getting to be quite a favorite with the ladies in the employes building since he began to live with Miss Bowman.

The small orderlies presented Mr. Campbell with a Jack-o'-lantern carefully wrapped in paper on the morning of October 31st.

Miss Skipton took a party of girls out walking Tuesday evening and returned with ferns, etc. and decorated the employes' reception room.

Through a letter from Mr. Antoine Caisse we learn that Mrs. Caisse has been seriously ill with pneumonia, and they are located in Portland at present.

Miss Jeanette Booth of Salem, who filled the position of clerk here for some time this fall, went through Chemawa on her way to Silverton to accept a good position there.

A large number of Chemawans attended the football game on Saturday afternoon in Salem to witness Willamette's defeat of H. to 0 at the hands of Oregon University.

Webster Hudson's many friends were glad to see him return to school. Webster reports having had a pleasant vacation but was in a big hotel fire and lost all his clothes.

Miss Mamie Stillwell of Dayton, Ore., is filling the position of assistant clerk temporarily, and is occupying a room in the employes' building formerly occupied by Miss Lalor.

The office force were agreeably surprised by Mr. Westley, our gardener, who came in with a box of nice rosy red apples, which were raised on his place near the school. Mr. Westley, come again.