Football boys wish to send their compliments and thanks to Mrs. Cox thru the AMERICAN for what they get on their training tables.

The football boys deserve to win their next game. They are practising hard and are very enthusiastic over their coach whom they seem to think is first class.

The girls' basketball team was organized this week and Bessie Lahr was unanimously chosen captain. The teams have plenty of good material and we all sincerely hope that they will be successful in all their games this winter.

The Chemawa boys who are attending Willamette University have organized themselves into a Willamette-Chemawa basketball team, and are hard at work practising. We can look forward to some good games as they have among their number some of Chemawa's best players.

The girls' basketball teams have begun to practice, and have been chaperoned to the gym by Mrs. Tesbo, Miss Howard and Miss Stillwell. The girls' basketball team this year will be composed of mostly new material as Rosa Winslow who played center has not returned and Louise Murray and Fille Soueigner who played forwards are in the graduating class and will have their time all occupied.

ACADEMIC

Mrs. Chalcraft is teaching in the third grade.

The seventh grade pennant was made by Matilda John.

We understand that the Nesika Club is getting up an entertainment.

Miss Gertrude Brewer has been teaching the 5th and 6th grades since Miss Johnston's resignation.

Thos. Mullings sang a very pretty song at singing class on Tuesday night. Thomas has a good voice.

Mrs. Chalcraft put some pretty shades made of autumn leaves over the electric lights in her school room.

The seventh grade pennant is blue and white, which was made by one of the young ladies of that grade.

Clarence Bardwell takes excellent care of the school house furnace. We are always warm and comfortably now.

William Watkins is getting to be quite a cartoonist. He has cartooned some of his football fellows in action on his new white hat.

Mrs. Cloutier made a trip to Eureka heaven on business matters Saturday. She accompanied Miss Miller who has been a teacher in Chemawa for many years and has now resigned her position.

The medium small boys that have formerly been left out of the literary organization, held a meeting on the evening of October 17th and after electing Reginald Downs for their President to remain in office three months, they named their society "Uncle Sam Literary Society". They expect good meetings this winter, and will soon begin to prepare to give the school body an entertainment.

The organization began with the following members:

Reginald Downs, John Johnson, Patsie Barrett, Chester Meacum, Willard Charles Grover Olney, John Service, Willie Pratt, Robert Service, David Rhone, Ben Wilcox, Arthur Van Pelt, Alex Beyers, John Steel, Charles Dick, Martin Colby, Peter John.
