

PUPILS' ITEMS

Remember about being quiet in chapel.

Millard Charles is working on the farm.

I am very glad when I'm in Chemawa School.

Adelia Payne arrived from Siletz last week.

The engineers are now using coal instead of wood.

Martin Cooper is now working in the harness shop.

We are enjoying these beautiful Autumn days.

It is only fourteen more days until Thanksgiving.

Eleanor Zimmerman is now working in the laundry.

Jimmy Smith is going to be a good bassdrummer.

Minerva Mecum is now working in the hospital kitchen.

We are glad that Maggie Curl and her sister are back again.

We are glad to see Edward Berner back at school again.

We are all glad to see Dora Goodman out of the hospital.

Wm. Morgan cares for the bears. He takes good care of them.

We are going to have rain before long the way the clouds look.

We are glad that Virginia Garry while a new pupil, joined the Y. W. C. A.

Mr. Swartz and his force of boys are plowing the field west of the school.

Clara Reed is now working in the sewing room and getting along very well.

Minerva Mecum and Hulda Stokes made some very nice biscuits this week.

Mrs. Miller from Bandon, Oregon, is here visiting her children Elmer and Leona.

Mattie Zimmerman is making Bessie Williams a pretty dress for Thanksgiving.

Martha Miller is now working in the dining room and does her work very neatly.

Saturday was girls' day to go to town, and all the girls that went had a splendid time.

Hulda Stokes said she likes to work in the hospital because she learns how to cook.

William Watkins and Russell Whitebear had their pictures taken in their football suits.

Alex Lee is learning to be a carpenter when he is happy he sings about the land of snow. He is from Alaska.

Katie Henry returned to school Sunday and received hearty welcome from her fellow students.

Among the new members of the choir are Manuel Swanson, Thos. Mullings and Walter McGibbons.

A letter was received from California saying that Margery Gray is waiting on tables at Dunsmuir.

Lena Jones writes that she is getting lonesome. I hope she comes to Chemawa and get over her lonesomeness.

Addie Cameron is out of the hospital now and all the girls are glad to see her come back to McBride Hall again.

Willie Freidlander arrived lately from Colville Indian Reservation and his friends were very glad to see him.

Sunday the engineers were all busy, for the fireman could not get water in the boilers to keep steam for the lights.