

BREVITIES.

Prof. E. Sherwood of Salem was a Chemawa visitor Saturday.

It is now the middle of November and Chemawa is still enjoying her roses.

Mr. Westley and his force have begun the potatoe digging back of the school building.

J. S. Hall the agent for the "Bayocean Park" a land company of Tillamook Bay visited the school.

Among the Chemawa visitors Sunday were Mr. J. B. Giesy, Miss Lois Byrd and Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Byrd.

Supplies are coming in very slowly, but when they do come there is plenty of work for the Commissary force.

Miss Ross the Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. for Oregon, and Idaho, addressed the students on Wednesday evening.

Mr Bowen is greatly improving the appearance of the grounds. He has a force of boys and is getting the rose beds in fine condition.

Mr. Carlock of the Crystal Ice & Storage Co., was a Chemawa visitor on Wednesday looking after their consignment of coal to the school.

It is just two weeks until Thanksgiving and Chemawa's pupils are looking forward to a pleasant and enjoyable time on the annual festival day.

Mr. Westley and his nursery boys prepared the ground for a new supply of apples, peach and cherry trees, together with sufficient ground to put out a couple of thousand more of Chemawa's roses.

Last week the printer boys got busy and rustled over 200 subscriptions for the Chemawa American, and we can still take care of a few hundred more subscriptions. Subscription 25 cents per year.

Arthur Bensell visited the school last Monday bringing Adelia Payne with him from Siletz. Arthur is a member of the class of '02, and is now the industrial teacher at the Siletz Agency Boarding School.

SOCIETIES

Mr. Chalcraft, Miss Bowman and Mrs. Campbell addressed the Nonpareil Literary Society on Thursday evening.

The Reliance Literary Society met on Thursday evening with 36 members on the roll. The subject for debate was, "Resolved: That there is more pleasure in the country than in the city, argued with great interest." It was a simple subject, but the speakers had studied the question and were ready to defend their respective sides. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. The program rendered was excellent; Thos. Mulling's vocal solo; Ben Moore's recitation were especially good. Ellen Tohet's riddles kept every one guessing.
