

PUPILS' ITEMS

Rainy weather

Keep your feet dry

Button up your coats.

Charles Dick is working at the office.

Julia Walker is working in the laundry.

Annie Souvigner works in the dining hall.

Joe Gale said he likes to work at the office.

Mary St. Dennis is working in the dining hall.

We are all glad that Thanksgiving is coming soon.

The third grade classes are getting their lessons well.

We all enjoyed the band concert on Sunday afternoon.

There were a few changes made in the detail this week.

David Rabbie said he likes to work in the garden very well.

Delia Payne, one of our new girls, likes her work in the sewing room.

Henry John is one of the best sweepers in the little boys' building.

The girls' mandolin club was reorganized at McBride Hall last Monday.

The members of the Bible class had a very interesting meeting last Sunday.

The stringed instrument club had their first meeting Monday afternoon.

We all enjoyed the party given by the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. last Friday.

Esther Napoleon played on her guitar Sunday afternoon for some of the sick girls.

Thanksgiving is coming slowly but sure and we will be all glad to see that day come.

Christine, Nellie, and Sallie Boswell are very glad that their father is coming this winter.

Bessie Meannus worked in the sewing room one year and she can make nice dresses now.

We are glad to see May Evans looking so well again after being quite sick for a couple of days.

Katie Brewer volunteered to preside as Secretary for the Bible students Sunday afternoon meetings.

The girls basketball team is practicing every evening. Bessie Lahr is the Captain and Mr. Teabo, Manager.

Joe and Alfred Lane returned to school and their father bought some horses so they helped him take them back to their home.

The hospital girls are busy making sofa pillows for Miss Harold for the hospital. She is very anxious to have them finished.

All who attended the reception given by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. last Friday evening in the auditorium enjoyed themselves very much.

If all our dining room girls would take pride in washing dishes as Lillie Stanger does, there wouldn't be any unclean dishes on the tables.

A letter was received from Robert Cameron saying that he will soon be here to attend school at Willamette. We are all very anxious to see him.

We are glad to know that John Upham is getting to be a good baker. With such a fine new baker how could we help having excellent bread.